

Autobiography Of A College Student

3 pages | 580 words

My name is Gelliza Z. Quiambao, and I am currently in college studying education. I was born on 12th of September year 1996, four o'clock in the afternoon, in Jose Payumo Memorial Hospital. My parents are Gilbert and Josephine and I have two brothers who are Gil Joseph and Gianni.

I started studying when I was three. My grandparents are the ones who served as my babysitter since my parents weren't home for work, so my granddad enrolled me in a Daycare Center. You may not believe this but my grandma told me that I always sleep and cry in school.

After that, my parents enrolled me in Kindergarten then to Elementary. I was only five years old when I was on the first grade. Had to say, I was the youngest but I'm subsequent. My elementary days are incredibly awesome. I gained many friends; I achieved honors and awards, academic and sports, specifically chess. It's been quite jaded studying six years on the same school but it's totally fine with me because I have friends to laugh with, have fun with, and learn with.

In 2008, I graduated from elementary and became a high school freshman in Bataan Peninsula State University. It's great that I found true friends that same year, and it's quite funny how I always wanted a sister and God gave me nine super cool and amazing friends that actually treated me like a sister. I had so much fun with them. We went hiking on a mountain. It's really unforgettable because we took a ride on a horse.

It's my sophomore year in 2009, and the best moment that I remembered back there is when we ditched class. Yeah, I know it's not a really good thing to do but, best moments come from worst ideas, right? We cleaned the faculty room as our punishment. We did it for three months.

In 2010, I fell in love with music. It's like, my world revolves around music. There's something about the songs that I can somehow relate myself into the lyrics. I learned so much from it. Also this year is when I fell in love with a boy. Honestly, it wasn't a pretty story. I fell deeply in love with him then when we broke up; it's like my worst nightmare ever. But I learned that maybe we're not really meant to be together. Then, I realized that the fact between 'boy love' and 'boy hate' is the belief that whatever happens, I'll be fine.

Good friends, competitive teachers and one wonderful family are the ones who mold me for who I am today. Everything good I have inside of me, I get from them. I experienced lots of challenges that test my skills and personality. All those challenges and problems that I've been through leaves a wonderful lesson. Good days gave me happiness, bad days gave me experiences, which are both essential to life. Success keeps me growing and failures make me humble.

Right now, I'm studying very...

J.B. Bullen, 2014-06-06 Writing and Victorianism asks the fundamental question what is Victorianism and offers a number of answers taken from methods and approaches which have been developed over the last ten years This collection of essays written by both new and established scholars from Britain and the U S A develops many of the themes of nineteenth century studies which have lately come to the fore touching upon issues such as drugs class power and gender Some essays reflect the interaction of word and image in the nineteenth century and the notion of the city as spectacle others look at Victorian science finding a connection between writing and the growth of psychology and psychiatry on the one hand and with the power of scientific materialism on the other As well as key figures such as Dickens Tennyson and Wilde a host of new names are introduced including working class writers attempting to define themselves and writers in the Periodical press who once anonymous exercised a great influence over Victorian politics taste and social ideals From these observations there emerges a need for self definition in Victorian writing History ancestry and the past all play their part in figuring the present in the nineteenth century and many of these studies foreground the problem of literary social and psychological identity

Resources in Education , 1998-05 Women and Autobiography Martine Watson Brownley, Allison B. Kimmich, 1999 An overview of women s autobiography providing historical background and contemporary criticism along with selections from a range of autobiographies by women It seeks to provide a broad introduction to the major questions dominating autobiographical scholarship today A Collection of Problems and Examples in Mathematics Morgan, 1858 The Secret of Culture Change Jay B. Barney, Manoel Amorim, Carlos Júlio, 2023-08-08 Find out how bold actions by visionary leaders can inspire powerful stories that drive culture change Data indicates that most strategic efforts to change a company s culture fail So how do companies succeed in this endeavor A top strategy professor and two highly successful CEOs found that in companies that had successfully changed their culture leaders had taken dramatic actions that embodied the new cultural values These actions inspired stories that became company legends repeated in every department and handed on to new employees Through compiling and analyzing 150 stories from business leaders who have achieved change they identified 6 attributes that every successful culture change story has in common 1 The actions are authentic 2 They revolve around the CEO 3 They signal a clean break with the past and a clear path to the future 4 They appeal to employee heads and hearts 5 They re often theatrical or dramatic 6 They re told and re told throughout the organization With extensive and inspiring examples of stories containing these attributes the authors illustrate how readers can harness the power of stories within their company in order to change or create a winning culture to align with any strategy The Extraordinary Work of Ordinary Writing Jennifer Sinor, 2002-11-13 Krutch s trenchant observations about life prospering in the hostile environment of Arizona s Sonoran Desert turn to weighty questions about humanity and the precariousness of our existence putting lie to Western denials of mind in the lower forms of life Let us not say that this animal or even this plant has become adapted to desert conditions Let us say rather that they have all shown courage and ingenuity in making the best of the world as they found it And let us remember that if to use such terms in connection with them is a fallacy then it can only be somewhat less a fallacy to use the same terms in connection with ourselves The Palgrave Encyclopedia of Victorian Women's Writing Lesa Scholl, Emily Morris, 2022-12-15 Since the late twentieth century there has been a strategic campaign to recover the impact of Victorian women writers in the field of English literature However with the increased understanding of the importance of interdisciplinarity in the twenty first century there is a need to extend this campaign beyond literary studies in order to recognise the role of women writers across the nineteenth century a time that was intrinsically interdisciplinary in approach to scholarly writing and public intellectual engagement Women/Writing/Teaching Jan Zlotnik Schmidt, 1998-01-01 This book presents autobiographical visions of women writing teachers their complex lives as writers as instructors as feminists as professionals in the academy The authors explore their complex identities as teachers the particular configurations of their pasts gender class ethnic backgrounds personalities and cultures that have shaped their personae as instructors of writing The contributors explore the intersections of their past and present experiences that influence and guide their development as writers and as instructors of writing The book discusses how women can emerge from silence gain authority and power as professionals and balance the private and public aspects of their lives In addition it addresses how women constitute themselves as literacy teachers and what models of feminist pedagogy emerge Women Writing Teaching is notable for the range depth and richness of the chapters the dynamic interplay of voices approaches issues and concerns the multiethnic focus and the high quality of the writings It will prompt readers to explore their own life stories and to comprehend more fully women s complex lives as teaching professionals The Transition to College

Writing Keith Hjortshoj, 2009-01-12 This brief rhetoric introduces the essential reading and writing strategies students need to succeed in courses across the curriculum Taking the transition from high school to college as his starting point Hjortshoj speaks directly and honestly to students offering them practical strategies to shed ineffective habits and move toward a more mature flexible understanding of how to respond to academic challenges Distilling information about writing assignments from across the curriculum Hjortshoj shows students how to decode these assignments and approach them effectively The second edition offers more advice on how to meet the difficult challenge of synthesizing and integrating sources and the text has been streamlined to be a better reference American Journal of Education and College Review ,1877 Vol 25 is the report of the commissioner of education for 1880 v 29 report for 1877 The Victorian Girl and the Feminine Ideal Deborah Gorham, 2012-12-12 In Victorian England the perception of girlhood arose not in isolation but as one manifestation of the prevailing conception of femininity Examining the assumptions that underlay the education and upbringing of middle class girls this book is also a study of the learning of gender roles in theory and reality It was originally published in 1982 The first two sections examine the image of women in the Victorian family and the advice offered in printed sources on the rearing of daughters during the Victorian period To illustrate the effect and evolution of feminine ideals over the Victorian period the book's final section presents the actual experiences of several middle class Victorian women who represent three generations and range socioeconomically from lower middle class through upper middle class Contemporary Feminist Life-Writing Jennifer Cooke, 2020-04-08 Contemporary Feminist Life Writing is the first volume to identify and analyse the new audacity of recent feminist writings from life Characterised by boldness in both style and content willingness to explore difficult and disturbing experiences the refusal of victimhood and a lack of respect for traditional genre boundaries new audacity writing takes risks with its author's and others' reputations and even on occasion with the law This book offers an examination and critical assessment of new audacity in works by Katherine Angel Alison Bechdel Marie Calloway Virginie Despentes Tracey Emin Sheila Heti Juliet Jacques Chris Krauss Jana Leo Maggie Nelson Vanessa Place Paul Preciado and Kate Zambreno It analyses how they write about women's self authorship trans experiences struggles with mental illness sexual violence and rape and the desire for sexual submission It engages with recent feminist and gender scholarship providing discussions of vulnerability victimhood authenticity trauma and affect Encyclopedia of Life Writing Margaretta Jolly, 2013-12-04 First published in 2001 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Biography ,1995 Writing Blackgirls' and Women's Health Science Jameta Nicole Barlow, 2023-12-21 This field of Black girls and women's health BGWH science is both transdisciplinary and interdisciplinary As such the contributors to this edited collection offer a unique lens to BGWH science expanding our collective scientific worldviews The contributing authors draw upon their ontological and epistemological knowledge to formulate pathways and inform methodologies for doing research and praxis to address BGWH Each contributor draws upon these knowledges and offers the reader a way to better understand how their framing and writing can create change in the health of Black girls and women U.S. Latino Literature Margarite Fernández Olmos, Harold Augenbraum, 2000-09-30 In the past ten years literature by U S Latinos has gained an extraordinary public currency and has engendered a great deal of interest among educators Because of the increase in numbers of Latinos in their classrooms teachers have recognized the benefits of including works by such important writers as Sandra Cisneros Julia Alvarez and Rudolfo Anaya in the curriculum Without a guide introducing courses on U S Latino literature or integrating individual works into the general courses on American Literature can be difficult for the uninitiated While some critical sources for students and teachers are available none are dedicated exclusively to this important body of writing To fill the gap the editors of this volume commissioned prominent scholars in the field to write 18 essays that focus on using U S Latino literature in the classroom The selection of the subject texts was developed in conjunction with secondary school teachers who took part in the editors course This resultant volume focuses on major works that are appropriate for high school and undergraduate study including Judith Ortiz Cofer s The Latin Deli Piri Thomas Down These Mean Streets and Cisneros The House on Mango Street Each chapter in this Critical Guide provides pertinent biographical background on the author as well as contextual information that aids in understanding the literary and cultural significance of the work The most valuable component of the critical essays the Analysis of Themes and Forms helps the reader understand the thematic concerns raised by the work particularly the recurring issues of language expression and cultural identity assimilation and intergenerational conflicts Each essay is followed by specific suggestions for teaching the work with topics for classroom discussion Further enhancing the value of this work as a teaching tool are the selected bibliographies of criticism further reading and other related sources that complete each chapter Teachers will also find a Sample Course Outline of U S Latino Literature which serves as guide for developing a course on this important subject Fostering Positive Civic Engagement Among

The Lost Sermons of C. H. Spurgeon Volume II Charles Haddon Spurgeon, 2017-10-01 The Lost Sermons of C H Spurgeon is the first critical edition of any of Spurgeon s works shedding light on Spurgeon s early sermons which have never been published Women s Writing and Mission in the Nineteenth Century Angharad Eyre, 2022-11-30 Until now the missionary plot in Charlotte Brontë's Jane Eyre has been seen as marginal and anomalous. Despite women missionaries being ubiquitous in the nineteenth century, they appeared to be absent from nineteenth-century literature. As this book demonstrates, though, the female missionary character and narrative was in fact present in a range of writings from missionary newsletters and life writing to canonical Victorian literature. New Woman fiction and women's college writing. Nineteenth-century women writers wove the tropes of the female missionary figure and plot into their domestic fiction, and the female missionary themes of religious self-sacrifice and heroism formed the subjectivity of these writers and their characters. Offering an alternative narrative for the development of women writers and early feminism, as well as a new reading of Jane Eyre, this book adds to the debate about whether religious women in the nineteenth century could actually be radical and feminist.
