

Case Study Paper Format

Directions: Based on your observations, you will write a Case Study paper that includes the following elements:

Heading (Your name and other relevant information)

Date:

Child's Name:

Child's Age:

Observation Method:

Start Time:

End Time:

Total time of Observation:

- Setting (Playground, classroom, hallway):
- Activity (i.e. course instruction, independent practice, independent play, group play):
- Aim: State the general areas of development that you are interested in observing. You will be observing one or more of the following: language development; literacy behaviors; psycho-motor development; patterns and behaviors during play; time on task; interactions with adults and children; conflict resolution strategies; other behaviors as appropriate for age of child.
- Objectives: State the specific abilities you would like to observe, such as social skills, emotional self-regulation, vocabulary repertoire, attention span.
- Observations: This section contains narrative text, and perhaps tables, graphs and/or figures, reporting the results of your observations. You are not assessing or explaining what the observations mean yet. This is the factual part of the Case Study; you are reporting what you saw and heard.
- Conclusion: This is the qualitative section, in which you discuss your interpretation of the results. Some areas to be addressed in this section include: comparing the individual child to normative samples; assessing the tasks the child engaged in and the developmental appropriateness of these tasks; whether or not the child is meeting the criterion of academic standards; the specific interest areas of the child.
- Recommendations: Finally, you will make two or more suggestions to better assist the child in improving his/her skills, abilities, and progress. If you were the child's teacher, these suggestions would be provided to parents or guardians, teachers, a developmental specialist, school psychologist, other support staff, or administrators. Note: I will not provide a copy of this Case Study to anyone. Therefore, be clear and precise in this section.
