

“ANG BAYAN MUNA BAGO ANG SARILI” REACTION PAPER

“Bayan Muna Bago Ang Sarili” is a phrase that’s used in the Homily at the mass of the celebration of the 5th death anniversary of Ninoy Aquino that’s conducted by Jaime Cardinal Sin. Jaime Cardinal Sin, or so-called “Champion of the Poor” is one of the people who fought and spoke during the Marcos regime. He also helped in removing Ferdinand Marcos from his position. In his Homily, he starts by asking if Filipinos succeeded in building a new nation by “transcending our petty selves.” He also points out about what the late-Ninoy Aquino wants for our country. In addition, he said that talking and blaming each other isn’t enough to change a country, but doing the right thing can. Furthermore, he also implied that KKK means another thing, and it’s “Kanya-Kanyang Katwiran, Kagustuhan, Kabig, or worse Kurakot.” Amidst of all these statements, it left me a question. Do Filipinos really do their best to improve the status of the country?

The excerpt is mainly about nationalism. It tells about how and what we should do as a citizen in this country. I can say that the excerpt is truly relatable because of what I see and observe in today’s world. Many people are clamoring and saying things to each other rather than doing an action that can help in changing the country and this became a reason why our country stays underdeveloped. I felt a lot of things while reading the excerpt. I felt very much worried for the future, but on the other hand, it gives me a sense of hope and passion that we can do better to change the image of the Philippines by understanding and respecting each other. I agree with the statement of Ninoy Aquino that in order for us to free, we must accept criticism. We can’t respect and understand others’ voice and opinion because of the fact that we don’t accept criticism and our pride always prevails.

Overall, the excerpt deserves recognition and praise because it really targets the main problem of the country. Filipinos must revive this advocacy left by Ninoy Aquino to the Filipino people by promoting constructive criticism, unity, and individual and personal change in themselves. Ninoy’s message for us, Filipinos, is to change our own practices that we’ve done as well as our own demeanor and discernment throughout everyday life. Working together in a spirit of camaraderie and love for the country and putting aside the differences of others, we can do many things. As a Filipino citizen, the most important thing is to love our country.

Kramer, 2006-12-13 In 1899 the United States having announced its arrival as a world power during the Spanish Cuban American War inaugurated a brutal war of imperial conquest against the Philippine Republic Over the next five decades U S imperialists justified their colonial empire by crafting novel racial ideologies adapted to new realities of collaboration and anticolonial resistance In this pathbreaking transnational study Paul A Kramer reveals how racial politics served U S empire and how empire building in turn transformed ideas of race and nation in both the United States and the Philippines Kramer argues that Philippine American colonial history was characterized by struggles over sovereignty and recognition In the wake of a racial exterminist war U S colonialists in dialogue with Filipino elites divided the Philippine population into civilized Christians and savage animists and Muslims The former were subjected to a calibrated colonialism that gradually extended them self government as they demonstrated their capacities The latter were governed first by Americans then by Christian Filipinos who had proven themselves worthy of shouldering the white man s burden Ultimately however this racial vision of imperial nation building collided with U S nativist efforts to insulate the United States from its colonies even at the cost of Philippine independence Kramer provides an innovative account of the global transformations of race and the centrality of empire to twentieth century U S and Philippine histories
