AP Exam Review Guide for Semester Exam 1989-2002

Similar questions or concepts from the exams were only used once. Interpretations of charts were omitted, unless a concept was being asked. Definitions were not included in the answer key (This review should not be considered as the sole source of material that you will need to be successful on the AP Exam in May, but it is a good starting point for the multiple choice portion.)

Unit I

1. How do we formally amend the Constitution? This process best illustrates what principle? propose by 2/3 Congress and ratified by ¾ of states, illustrates the federal structure of US government
2. Know the checks and balances between the three branches.
3. What was Madison's opinion of factions in Federalist 10? How could they be controlled? natural, but controllable by institutions; undesirable, but inevitable in a free nation
4. What was the most important effect of replacing the Articles of Confederation with the Constitution? creation of strong national government
5. Define the doctrine of original intent. meaning of Constitution based on the intent of the framers
6. List the core values of the US political culture legal equality, political equality, freedom of religion, freedom of speech
7. What was the importance of Shay's Rebellion to the development of the Constitution? strong national government needed to protect property
8. Define federalism and how is power distributed? a division of power between central government and regional governments
9. Which principle was established in McCulloch v Maryland? states cannot interfere with or tax the legitimate activities of the federal government, doctrine of implied powers and Supremacy clause
10. The 10th Amendment reserved powers to the states can best be described as those powers not granted to the national government or denied to the states are reserved to the states.
11. The framers believed that the primary function of government is protecting individual property rights.
12. The interpretations of the necessary and proper clause have been central in defining the principle of federalism and it has allowed the national government to extend its enumerated powers.
13. The framers of the Constitution devised a legislative process that can best be described as cautious and deliberative.
14. List 4 consequences of our federal system. inequality of government services across subnational entities, opportunities for experimentation by states in government programs, multiple points of access for interest groups, decentralization of political conflict.
15. The original Constitution included provisions to increase the economic powers of the national government.
16. Judicial review was established by the case of Marbury v Madison.
17. Did the original Constitution determine the qualifications for the electorate? No

Unit II

1. Explain voting turnout in primaries and general elections. Which type of voter is most likely to vote in the primaries? More voters turn out in general elections, the most in presidential elections and the more affluent vote in primary elections. The majority of the electorate does not vote in most elections.
2. Identify voting patterns (likely to vote and for what party) for the following groups: women, minorities, labor union workers, Catholics, Protestant, poor, wealthy, age, region of country, education
3. Define and give examples of categorical, revenue sharing, project grants, and block grants. Which type of grant gives the states the most discretion in establishing policy? block grants
