Dress, Adornment, and the Body in the Hebrew Bible Laura Quick, 2021-02-09 Dress Adornment and the Body in the Hebrew Bible is the first monograph to treat dress and adornment in biblical literature in the English language It moves beyond a description of these aspects of ancient life to encompass notions of interpersonal relationships and personhood that underpin practices of dress and adornment Laura Quick explores the ramifications of body adornment in the biblical world informed by a methodologically plural approach incorporating material culture alongside philology textual exegesis comparative evidence and sociological models Drawing upon and synthesizing insights from material culture and texts from across the eastern Mediterranean the volume reconstructs the social meanings attached to the dressed body in biblical texts It shows how body adornment can deepen understanding of attitudes towards the self in the ancient world In Quick s reconstruction of ancient performances of the self the body serves as the observed centre in which complex ideologies of identity gender sexuality ethnicity and social status are articulated The adornment of the body is thus an effective means of non verbal communication but one which at the same time is controlled by and dictated through normative social values Exploring dress adornment and the body can therefore open up hitherto unexplored perspectives on these social values in the ancient world an essential missing piece in understanding the social and cultural world which shaped the Hebrew Bible
