The Attack on Nova Scotia Schools Grant Frost,2020-04-07 Nova Scotia's public schools and their students have faced dramatic conflict and drastic change over the past 25 years While critics charge that schools are failing kids teachers have been under attack from think tanks and politicians Parents and citizens have seen power centralized after democratically elected school boards were abolished Grant Frost offers an insider's account of these tumultuous years and offers an explanation for the turmoil Behind the conflict he discovers right wing think tanks that relentlessly seek to discredit public education and teachers while pushing for changes that would benefit corporations who want willing workers The think tanks are also promoters of the charter school movement that continues to gain ground in the US and that is promoted as a better option than public schools Whether it's Nova Scotia's own right wing think tank or local journalists who readily adopt the cry that our schools are failing Grant Frost traces the path that he finds has threatened the quality of schooling in Nova Scotia He sets out the steps for parents teachers and other citizens to ensure that public education is championed and protected in Nova Scotia

Between Caring & Counting Lindsay Kerr,2006-12-15 One of the key planks of conservative Ontario premier Mike Harris's 1990s platform was education reform Amid a sea of official reports policy documents and expert opinions on education however the voices of actual classroom teachers were difficult to find This omission is redressed in Lindsay Kerr's Between Caring & Counting Through a focus group of present day secondary school teachers in Toronto Kerr delivers a passionate account of the unassailably negative changes affecting secondary education and teachers work From a critical feminist perspective and using institutional ethnography Kerr situates the problem in education squarely as a conflict between an accounting logic and an ethic of care at the centre of education practice She exposes paradoxes inherent in education reform such as the increase of government control at the same time that government funding for education decreases She also connects educational restructuring to changes in the power relations of gender class and race across the public education system These local changes she finds do not reflect sound pedagogy but the imperatives of neoliberal globalization Counteracting despair with hope Kerr explores self reflexive suggestions for teacher educators to exercise agency in their lives and to continue to work toward a just and equitable public education system
