

Critical Reading Activity B-2: Electing the President

OBJECTIVES: Use the information in your textbook to complete the diagrams.

THE ELECTORAL COLLEGE SYSTEM

In 1788	In 1800	Today
Each state elects electors equal in the number of senators and representatives. The Electoral College voted for presidents in their own states. The electors with the most votes became president and the next state electors became vice president.	The 12th Amendment requires electors to cast separate ballots for president and vice president. It also requires electors to sign a certificate of votes.	Presidents are elected by the electors and vice presidents are elected by the electors. The Electoral College is made up of electors from each state. Electors are chosen by the voters in each state.

OBJECTIVES: Use the information in your textbook to complete the diagrams.

1. According to the information in your textbook, the Electoral College system is unique to the United States. What is the only other country that has a similar system? What is the only other country that has a similar system?
2. Another Electoral College is the only party's candidate's electoral college system. What is the only other country that has a similar system?
3. If the House votes for the president, what is the only other country that has a similar system?
4. The president of the United States is the only other country that has a similar system.
