Public Sector Accountants and Quantum Leap: How Far We Can Survive in Industrial Revolution 4.0? Akhmad Solikin, Yuniarto Hadiwibowo, Benny Setiawan, Amrie Firmansyah, Hendrati Dwi Mulyaningsih, 2020-08-07 The Industrial Revolution 4.0 will not only cause job losses but will also create new workspaces that may not exist today. It also needs to be considered by accountants in government because the processes of budget planning, budget execution, and financial reporting have used a large number of information systems. In the era of the Industrial Revolution 4.0, the changes will be faster, marked by the emergence of such systems as supercomputers, smart robots, cloud computing, big data systems, genetic engineering, and the development of neurotechnology that allows humans to optimize brain function further. Industrial Revolution 4.0 will disrupt the accounting profession. This proceedings provides selected papers, research on government accounting accountability and integrity public sector accounting financial accounting accounting information system auditing and assurance corporate sustainability forensic and management accounting public and corporate finance taxation and customs open innovation in public sector accounting The proceedings provide details beyond what is possible to be included in an oral presentation and constitute a concise but timely medium for the dissemination of recent research results It will be invaluable to professionals and academics in the field of accounting finance and the public sector to get an understanding of recent research

Intangible Values in Financial Accounting and Reporting Stephan Grüber, 2014-07-18 Academics and practitioners argue that intangible values have become significant value drivers of today's economy Major production inputs no longer comprise of property plant and equipment but rather of brands knowledge and other technological innovation Based on this notion information on such phenomena is supposedly crucial for existing and potential capital providers in making decisions whether to allocate resources to a company This thesis examines the information use and needs of financial analysts with respect to intangible values The purpose is to shed light on the usefulness of such information from the perspective of one of the primary user groups of IFRSs

Enterprise Risk Management (2nd Edition) David L Olson, Desheng Dash Wu, 2015-01-21 Risk is inherent in business Without risk there would be no motivation to conduct business But a key principle is that organizations should accept risks that they are competent enough to deal with and outsource other risks to those who are more competent to deal with them such as insurance companies Enterprise Risk Management 2nd Edition approaches enterprise risk management from the perspectives of accounting supply chains and disaster management in addition to the core perspective of finance While the first edition included the perspective of information systems the second edition views this as part of supply chain management or else focused on technological specifics It discusses analytical tools available to assess risk such as balanced scorecards risk matrices multiple criteria analysis simulation data envelopment analysis and financial risk measures Teaching IFRS Richard M.S. Wilson,Ralph Adler,2013-09-13 The increasing pace of global conformance towards the adoption of International Financial Reporting Standards IFRS highlights the need for accounting students as well as accounting practitioners to be conversant with IFRS Teaching IFRS offers expert descriptions of and insights into the IFRS convergence process from a teaching and learning perspective Hence this book is both timely and likely to have considerable impact in providing guidance for those who teach financial reporting around the world The contents of the book come from authoritative sources and offer something distinctive to complement the existing textbooks which typically focus on the technical aspects of IFRS and their adoption Drawing upon the experiences of those who have sought to introduce IFRS related classroom innovations and the associated student outcomes achieved therefrom the book offers suggestions about how to design and deliver courses dealing with IFRS and catalogues extensive listings of IFRS related teaching resources to support those courses This book was originally published as a special issue of Accounting Education An international journal
