Effective School Librarianship Patrick Lo, Heather Rogers, Dickson K.W. Chiu, 2018-04-27 These volumes provide a series of informative interviews with school teacher librarians practicing in different parts of the world The 2 volume set showcases the resilience creativity and best practices from successful school librarians from Europe Asia Africa Australia and North and South America The librarians interviewed come from all different schools and schools systems from a tiny recently built school library in a rural village in Africa to an ultra modern library in Sweden Featuring 37 interviews with successful school librarians from across the globe the volumes let us hear the stories from countries around the world They tell about their creative and innovative school library projects their unconventional reading programs and their best practices and experiences in addressing the challenges of supporting basic literacy A wide selection of methodologies and approaches are discussed offering a global voyage through topics important in school librarianship The 2 volume set also addresses recent advancements in information and communication technologies ICTs and the shift toward inquiry based learning that impacts school libraries worldwide The books are packed with information that can be used by school librarians teachers school administrators and others in a variety of ways Readers can borrow best practices from the experiences presented in the book and the volumes can also serve as a strong voice for practicing school librarians and the profession through expanding the opportunities for professional sharing in the international school library community , Cases of Assessment in Mathematics Education M. Niss, 1992-12-31 The present book Cases of Assessment in Mathematics Education is one of two studies resulting from an ICMI Study Conference on Assessment in Mathematics Education and Its Effects The book which is published in the series of ICMI Studies under the general editorship of the President and Secretary of ICMI is closely related to another study resulting from the same conference Investigations into Assessment in Mathematics Education Niss 1992 The two books although originating from the same sources and having the same editor emphasize different aspects of assessment in mathematics education and can be read independently of one another While the present book is devoted to presenting and discussing cases of assessment that are actually implemented the other study attempts to critically analyze general and principal aspects of assessment Naturally the content of either book is enriched by the materials and perspectives provided by the other one In order to put this book and its background into context the nature and scope of the ICMI studies are outlined briefly below Secondary Education at the Crossroads Phillip Hughes, 2006-09-23 Education is a universal priority Currently it is at a crossroad In every society it is valued as a major road to produce more productive more harmonious and healthier citizens Yet in every setting there is deep dissatisfaction with the overall performance of education and there are major moves towards reform sometimes superficial but more often fundamental These reform processes have had only moderate and very uneven success Too often they are episodic reflecting a short term approach which is frequently changed for the latest enthusiasm or the most recent administration In Asia and the Pacific countries many systems are in the process of construction or reconstruction Can we learn from the experiences of others Given the multiplicity of efforts at reform and the variety of situations for reform there may well be lessons we can learn from each other s efforts and each others failures and successes This book features contributions from experienced researchers who have worked in many different settings and bring their own insights to attack this universal problem The Independent Schools Guide 2004-2005 Gabbittas Educational Consultants,2004 British education is recognized worldwide for its excellent academic standards and tradition of welcoming overseas students This annual publication is the ideal reference for families relocating to the UK or who would like their child to attend a boarding school there It provides the detailed information parents need to make a fully informed choice including Extensive indices for over 2 000 schools classified by county religious affiliation sex provision for dyslexia plus details of specialist schools School fee planning plus details of scholarships bursaries and other awards GCSEs A Levels Scottish examinations GNVQs and the International Baccalaureate Guidance The guide also includes a parent s guide to the sixth form and beyond including university entry and careers detailed profiles of over 200 schools and colleges and useful addresses and associations Handbook of Research and Policy in Art Education Elliot W. Eisner,Michael D.

Day,2004-04-12 The Handbook of Research and Policy in Art Education marks a milestone in the field of art education Sponsored by the National Art Education Association and assembled by an internationally known group of art educators this 36 chapter handbook provides an overview of the remarkable progress that has characterized this field in recent decades Organized into six sections it profiles and integrates the following elements of this rapidly emerging field history policy learning curriculum and instruction assessment and competing perspectives Because the scholarly foundations of art education are relatively new and loosely coupled this handbook provides researchers students and policymakers both inside and outside the field an invaluable snapshot of its current boundaries and rapidly growing content In a nutshell it provides much needed definition and intellectual respectability to a field that as recently as 1960 was more firmly rooted in the world of arts and crafts than in scholarly research The International Baccalaureate Diploma Programme Tim
