ICMLG 2018 6th International Conference on Management Leadership and Governance Dr Vincent Ribiere, 2018-05-24 These proceedings represent the work of researchers participating in the 6th International Conference on Management Leadership and Governance ICMLG 2018 which is being hosted this year by the Institute for Knowledge and Innovation Southeast Asia IKI SEA a Centre of Excellence of at Bangkok University Thailand on 24 25 May 2018 African Economic Development Christopher Cramer, John Sender, Arkebe Oqubay, 2020 This book challenges conventional wisdoms about economic performance and possible policies for economic development in African countries Its starting point is the striking variation in African economic performance Unevenness and inequalities form a central fact of African economic experiences The authors highlight not only differences between countries but also variations within countries differences often organized around distinctions of gender class and ethnic identity For example neo natal mortality and school dropout have been reduced particularly for some classes of women in some areas of Africa Horticultural and agribusiness exports have grown far more rapidly in some countries than in others These variations and many others point to opportunities for changing performance reducing inequalities learning from other policy experiences and escaping the ties of structure and the legacies of a colonial past The book rejects teleological illusions and Eurocentric prejudice but it does pay close attention to the results of policy in more industrialized parts of the world Seeing the contradictions of capitalism for what they are fundamental and enduring may help policy officials protect themselves against the misleading idea that development can be expected to be a smooth linear process or that it would be were certain impediments suddenly removed The authors criticize a wide range of orthodox and heterodox economists especially for their cavalier attitude to evidence Drawing on their own decades of research and policy experience they combine careful use of available evidence from a range of African countries with political economy insights mainly derived from Kalecki Kaldor and Hirschman to make the policy case for specific types of public sector investment Emancipatory Feminism in the Time of Covid-19 Hawzhin Azeez, Asanda Benya, Christine Bischoff, Jane Cherry, Jacklyn Cock, Jane Mbithi-Dikgol, Samantha Hargreaves, Courtney Morgan, Inge Konik, Sonia

Phalatse,Busi Sibeko,Dineo Skosana,2023-07 The Covid pandemic threw into stark relief the multi dimensional threats created by neoliberal capitalism Government measures to alleviate the crisis were largely inadequate leaving women in particular working class women to carry the increased burden of care work while at the same time placing themselves in direct risk as frontline workers to carry the increased burden of care work while at the same time placing themselves in direct risk as frontline workers Emancipatory Feminism in the time of Covid 19 The seventh volume in the Democratic Marxism series explores how many subaltern women working class peasant and indigenous Challenge hegemonic neoliberal feminism through their resistance to ordinary capitalist practices and ecological extractivism Contributors cover womens responses in a wide range of contexts from women leading the defence of Rojava the Kurdish region of Syria to approaches to anti capitalist ecology and building food secure pathways in communities across Africa to championing climate justice in mining affected communities and transforming gender divisions in mining labour practices in South Africa To contesting macro economic policies affecting the working conditions of nurses Their practices demonstrate a feminist understanding of the current systemic crises of capitalism and patriarchal oppression What is offered in this collection is a subaltern women s grassroots resistance focused on advancing and enabling solidarity based political projects deepening democracy building capacities and alliances to advance new feminist alternatives

Choice and conscience: Lessons from South Africa for a global debate Satang Nabaneh,2023-11-08 Choice and Conscience offers a fresh and insightful perspective on the highly debated issue of conscientious objection in abortion care Satang Nabaneh s socio legal approach which draws on both traditional legal scholarship and African feminist intellectual traditions provides a nuanced understanding of how legal norms construct and maintain power relations By focusing on the experiences of nurses in South Africa Nabaneh explores the complexities of conscience discretionary power and socio cultural and political factors that influence nurses decisions about whether or not to conscientiously object In the wake of the recent rollback of abortion rights in the United States and the trend towards liberalisation within the African region Nabaneh provides an important African perspective on how the international human rights framework should strike a contextual balance between freedom of conscience and ensuring access to abortion Choice and Conscience will interest lawyers activists policymakers scholars and students exploring the dynamic intersections of law healthcare and gender politics Choice and Conscience stands as a significant and valuable addition to the ongoing global scholarship on this critical issue It underscores the vital concept that intersectionality should occupy a central place in our examination of how various local contexts give rise to layered forms of privilege and disadvantage Dr Tlaleng Mofokeng UN Special Rapporteur on the right to health Nabaneh s study of law in action zeros in on South African nurses gatekeepers who often object to the practice for reasons of conscience Her interviews of these nurses and her analysis complicate our understanding of challenges to abortion access providing lessons applicable not only to South Africa and other African countries but everywhere where there is a gap between formal law and its application Mindy

Jane Roseman JD PhD Yale Law School Written from an African feminist perspective this book offers fresh insights into our understanding of the intersection between politics mobilisation of discretionary power and the exercise of conscientious objection to abortion by mid level providers Charles Ngwenya Professor of Law Centre for Human Rights University of Pretoria This book offers powerful insights about how informal and background norms in health systems function constrain or enable reproductive justice Focusing on conscientious objection to abortion by nurses including midwives in South Africa Nabaneh sketches the importance of a feminist analysis that is situated in Africans lived realities Alicia Ely Yamin Harvard University
