River gypsies are an ethnic group in Bangladesh. They are known as bedey to local people. The gypsies have their own lifestyle and culture. They live in groups and do not own any land. Therefore, they live a nomadic life travelling from one place to another. These people roam across our rivers and wathers from May to December in small country boats. These boats are their houses and these they people are a part of our wathers. In winter, many water bodies dry up. At that time they return to the mainland and live in make-shift tarpaulin tents on open river banks. You can see their men relaxing in the tents. Toddlers play with dogs or other pets in the dust. Women often idle away time by hair doing, picking off lice in twos or threes sitting in a row.

Throught the monsoon, they remain busy with fishing. They also dive for natural pearls in wathers. Sometimes, they camp a couple of weeks. Men catch sankes and entertain people with sanke charming and sell herbal cures. Women go from door to door to sell bangles, cosmetics and other things. They also try to heal pains of old people often be sucking out blood from their body.

Many villagers' believes in the magical power of the gypsies. They can an evil spirit leave someone's body by magic or special Powers.

Practical Cataloguing Anne Welsh, Sue Batley, 2012 This essential new textbook provides cataloguers with the skills needed for transition to Resource Description and Access RDA The book builds on John Bowman s highly regarded Essential Cataloguing and gives an introduction to Functional Requirements for Bibliographic Records FRBR which provides the conceptual basis for RDA discusses the differences between AACR2 and RDA and shows the current state of play in MARC 21 Key topics are introduction to catalogues and cataloguing standards the FRBRization of the catalogue bibliographic elements access points and headings RDA the new standard its development structure and features AACR and RDA the similarities and differences between the two standards the MARC21 record bringing it all together the birth of RDA and the death of MARC The final chapter includes ten records displayed in AACR2 level 1 AACR2 level 2 RDA and MARC 21 making it easy to see the differences at a glance There is also a fully explained worked example based on RDA Appendix M Readership Written at a time of transition in international cataloguing this book provides cataloguers and students with a background in general cataloguing principles the current code AACR2 and format MARC 21 and the new standard RDA The contextual chapters provide library managers with an up to date overview of the development of RDA in order to equip them to make the transition The book will be essential reading for students of library and information studies and practising library and information professionals in all sectors It will also be of great interest to the archives sector Empire, Politics and the Creation of the 1935 India Act Dr Andrew Muldoon, 2013-06-28 The 1935 Government of India Act was arguably the most significant turning point in the history of the British administration in India The intent of the Act a proposal for an Indian federation was the continuation of British control of India and the deflection of the challenge to the Raj posed by Gandhi Nehru and the nationalist movement This book seeks to understand why British administrators and politicians believed that such a strategy would work and what exactly underpinned their reasons It is argued that British efforts to defuse and disrupt the activities of Indian nationalists in the interwar years were predicated on certain cultural beliefs about Indian political behaviour and capacity However this was not simply a case of Orientalist policy making Faced with a complicated political situation a staggering amount of information and a constant need to produce analysis the officers of the Raj imposed their own cultural expectations upon events and evidence to render them comprehensible Indians themselves played an often overlooked role in the formulation of this political intelligence especially the relatively few Indians who maintained close ties to the colonial government such as T B Saprú and M R Jayakar These men were not just mediators as they have frequently been portrayed but were in fact important tacticians whose activities further demonstrated the weaknesses of the colonial information economy The author employs recently released archival material including the Indian Political Intelligence records to situate the 1935 Act in its multiple and overlapping contexts internal British culture and politics the imperial information order in India and the politics of Indian nationalism This rich and nuanced study is essential reading for scholars working on British Indian and imperial history Singapore Private International Law Adelin Chong, 2023 The Anti-Suit Injunction Thomas Raphael QC, 2019 Developing the Athlete William J. Kraemer, Nicholas A. Ratamess, Thomas Newman, 2024-02-27 Over the past decade the complexity of athlete development has increased and sport science has become enthralled with metrics and genetics While an abundance of information has emerged there is still a lack of practical guidance on how to integrate this information with training to help athletes achieve their potential Developing the Athlete An Applied Sport Science Roadmap for Optimizing Performance brings much needed clarity providing a proven blueprint for bringing together the many fields related to sport science via an athlete development team that navigates the day to day development of each athlete Developed by a team of renowned authors including William Kraemer one of the most prolifically published sport scientists in history Developing the Athlete An Applied Sport Science Roadmap for Optimizing Performance is the first resource of its kind It explains the integration of sport science through the development of an athlete development team implementing a process of testing evaluating assessing and monitoring athlete training and performance You will learn how data generated by the athlete development team are translated into training programs that promote the physical and psychological development an athlete needs to compete and succeed at every level of competition You will also find step by step explanations of how to create a testing fingerprint unique to each athlete as well as case studies and success stories that demonstrate how the concepts in the book have been experienced in real life Get a better understanding of how the use of sport science can improve the skills needed for long term athlete development Developing the Athlete An Applied Sport Science Roadmap for Optimizing Performance will help all types of sport performance professionals prioritize and apply the three Cs credentials competence and commitment so you can tap into known scientific principles and practices to develop a path for success for all your athletes Earn continuing education credits units A continuing education exam that uses this book is also available It may be purchased separately or as part of a package that includes both the book and exam The Future of Solar Exploration, 2003-2013 Mark Vincent Sykes,NRC Solar System Exploration Decadal Survey,2002 Between June 2001 and January 2002 planetary scientists from around the United States and other nations created 24 self selected panels to discuss issues facing solar system exploration in 2003 2013 and how those issues should be addressed Each panel generated a white paper containing their conclusions and recommendations These were forwarded to the National Research Council as community input in support of the Solar System Exploration Decadal Survey and comprise the chapters of this book RDA Around the World Marie-France Plassard,Gordon Dunsire,2017-10-02 This book provides a snapshot of the implementation in various countries around the world of the international cataloging standard RDA resource description and access All stages of implementing a new standard are covered from initial assessment and impact analysis through translation staff training and data migration to implementation and user orientation Contributions include the results of detailed research into awareness of the standard in professional groups differences between catalog metadata produced using RDA and current local standards and the effect of RDA on the presentation of catalog displays to the end user The contributions cover aspects of RDA implementation in Canada China German speaking countries Iran Israel Mexico the Philippines Singapore and Turkey and French German and Spanish translation activity The information contained will be relevant for many years to come for those who are intending to implement RDA review the quality of legacy data measure the impact of the globalization of cataloguing data or prepare for education and orientation in international bibliographic standards This book was published as a special double issue of Cataloging and Classification Quarterly Mild Cognitive Impairment: Influencing Factors and Intervention Effects Ying Wang,Jin-Tai Yu,Xinyi Cao,Guillermo Felipe,López Sánchez,2024-07-16 As the aging population

degree is deepened cognitive impairment has become a globally recognized public health problem As an intermediate state from normal cognition NC to Alzheimer s disease AD mild cognitive impairment MCI has a highly variable cognitive trajectory which contains three outcomes 1 progression to AD and other types of dementia 2 Maintaining stability 3 Reversal to NC Reversal of cognitive function can be achieved by taking positive and effective measures Current studies mostly focus on factors affecting MCI to AD World Health Organization and Alzheimer s Disease International have also proposed relatively mature guidelines for risk factors However there are still some influencing factors that have not yet formed a unified conclusion In addition there are fewer studies and no consensus on the influencing factors for MCI to NC Current forms of intervention for MCI are mainly non pharmacological interventions and there is a lack of randomized controlled trials with larger sample sizes and longer intervention periods to confirm the effect of pharmacological and non pharmacological interventions The purpose of this study is to explore the factors that influence the transition from MCI to AD or NC in aging adults and to examine how the influencing factors make the cognitive function of aging adults with MCI deteriorate improve or even reverse to NC and how are their reversal rates This includes effective measures proven through pharmacological and non pharmacological intervention studies and their impact on reversal Influence factors include but are not limited to demographic factors age socioeconomic status education lifestyle smoking alcohol consumption physical activity nutrition social participation mental health depression loneliness diseases hypertension diabetes sleep disorders biological markers amyloid tau protein and pharmacological factors cholinesterase inhibitor A monoclonal antibodies drugs to rebalance the gut flora etc and submission of research results based on intervention trials is encouraged
