Research papers that use MLA format do not include a cover page unless requested by your instructor. Instead, start with the information shown at the top of this page. Do not bold the title or use all capital letters. Capitalize the first and last words of the title, and all principal words. If your paper includes a subtitle, separate it from the title by a colon and space, as shown. For more specific guidance on capitalization, see the MLA Handbook for Writers of Research Papers, 7th Edition (MLA 7th Edition).

All text—including titles, quotations, notes, and list of works cited—uses double line spacing. Body text and note text use a half-inch first-line indent. The list of works cited uses a half-inch hanging indent. Table titles and source text use a quarter-inch indent. Access all of these text formats on the Home tab, in the Styles gallery.

MLA format discourages extensive use of content notes. But, when you need to add notes, you can use either endnotes or footnotes. MLA 7th Edition indicates that you should use a superscript, Arabic numeral at an appropriate place in the text for the note reference. To begin the note text, use the same numeral, not superscript, and followed by a period.

If you use endnotes, they should be on a separate page, at the end of your text and preceding the list of works cited. If you use footnotes, consult your professor for preferred format.

ChatGPT and Writing Your College Essays Barbara Oleynick, 2025-01-25 The purpose of this eBook is to serve as a comprehensive guide to mastering the art of essay writing. It aims to help readers understand the different types of essays, their unique characteristics, and how to craft them effectively. Whether you're a student looking to improve your academic writing skills, a teacher searching for teaching resources, or a professional wanting to enhance your communication skills, this eBook provides practical insights and actionable tips tailored to your needs. Successful College Writing Kathleen T. McWhorter, 2011-12-07 Because so many first-year writing students lack the basic skills the course demands, reading specialist McWhorter gives them steady guidance through the challenges they face in academic work. Successful College Writing offers extensive instruction in active and critical reading, practical advice on study and college survival skills, step-by-step strategies for writing and research, detailed coverage of the nine rhetorical patterns of development, and 61 readings that provide strong rhetorical models, as well as an easy-to-use handbook in the complete edition. McWhorter's unique visual approach to learning uses graphic organizers, revision flowcharts, and other visual tools to help students analyze texts and write their own essays. Her unique attention to varieties of learning styles also helps empower students, allowing them to identify their strengths and learning preferences. Read the preface.

Patterns for College Writing Laurie G. Kirsznar, Stephen R. Mandell, 2011-12-22 Laurie Kirsznar and Stephen Mandell, authors with nearly thirty years of experience teaching college writing, know what works in the classroom and have a knack for picking just the right readings. In Patterns for College Writing, they provide students with exemplary rhetorical models and instructors with class-tested selections that balance classic and contemporary essays. Along with more examples of student writing than any other reader, Patterns has the most comprehensive coverage of active reading, research, and the writing process, with a five-chapter mini-rhetoric, the clearest explanations of the patterns of development, and the most thorough apparatus of any rhetorical reader. All reasons why Patterns for College Writing is the best-selling reader in the country. And the new edition includes exciting new readings and expanded coverage of critical reading, working with sources, and research. It is now available as an interactive Bedford e-book and in a variety of other e-book formats that can be downloaded to a computer, tablet, or e-reader. Read the preface.

Writing the College Essay James D. Zamagias, 1996 The "I Hate to Write" Guide to College Level Essays Beth Daniels, 2017-12-29 THE I HATE TO WRITE GUIDE TO COLLEGE LEVEL ESSAYS 4 IN 1 does not replace the required text books in English Composition courses, but it does explain how to write an essay at this level without using academic words like thesis. I never understood what that meant when I was an undergraduate, so I don't expect everyone to know what it means, but I do explain what it is in regular language. The four volumes grouped together here have appeared in e-book form, but never as a print copy. It was probably past time to offer another option. The reason I wrote BASIC ESSAY BOOK, CRITIQUE, and RESEARCH PAPER is that they were the first essays students were required to write, not just in composition.
