Schirmacher: Paul in Conflict with the Veil, 2023-04-13 Thomas Schirmacher argues that from the biblical teaching that man is the head of woman 1 Cr 11 3 the Corinthians had drawn the false conclusion that in prayer a woman must be veiled and a man is forbidden to be veiled and that the wife exists for the husband but not the husband for the wife Paul however rejects these conclusions and shows in 11 10 16 why the veiling of women did not belong to God's commandments binding upon all the Christian communities Schirmacher presents an alternative exposition discusses quotations and irony in 1 Corinthians and deals with other New Testament texts about women's clothing and prayer and about the subordination of wives

Apartheid Israel Sean Jacobs, Jon Soske, 2015-11-02 In Apartheid Israel The Politics of an Analogy eighteen scholars of Africa and its diaspora reflect on the similarities and differences between apartheid era South Africa and contemporary Israel with an eye to strengthening and broadening today's movement for justice in Palestine

Exile Identity, Agency and Belonging in South Africa Zosa De Sas Kropiwnicki, 2017-07-13 This book examines the experiences of 49 second generation exiles from South Africa Using generation as an analytical concept it investigates the relational temporal and embodied nature of their childhoods in terms of kinship relations life cycle cohort development and memory making It reveals how child agents exploited the liminal nature of exile to negotiate their sense of identity home and belonging while also struggling over their position and power in formal Politics and informal politics of the everyday It also reflects upon their political consciousness identity and sense of civic duty on return to post apartheid South Africa and how this has led to the emergence of the Masupatsela generational cohort concerned with driving social and political change in South Africa Mean Streets Crush, Jonathan, Chikanda, Abel, 2015-11-16 This book powerfully demonstrates that some of the most resourceful entrepreneurs in the South African informal economy are migrants and refugees Yet far from being lauded they take their life into their hands when they trade on South Africa's mean streets The book draws attention to what they bring to their adopted country through research into previously unexamined areas of migrant entrepreneurship Ranging from studies of how migrants have created agglomeration economies in Jeppe and Ivory Park in Johannesburg to guanxi networks of Chinese entrepreneurs to competition and cooperation among Somali shop owners to cross border informal traders to the informal transport operators between South Africa and Zimbabwe the chapters in this book reveal the positive economic contributions of migrants these include generating employment paying rents providing cheaper goods to poor consumers and supporting formal sector wholesalers and retailers As well Mean Streets highlights the xenophobic responses to migrant and refugee entrepreneurs and the challenges they face in running a successful business on the streets Shadow Libraries Joe Karaganis, 2018-05-04 How students get the materials they need as opportunities for higher education expand but funding shrinks From the top down Shadow Libraries explores the institutions that shape the provision of educational materials from the formal sector of universities and publishers to the broadly informal ones organized by faculty copy shops student unions and students themselves It looks at the history of policy battles over access to education in the post World War II era and at the narrower versions that have played out in relation to research and textbooks from library policies to book subsidies to more recently the several open publication models that have emerged in the higher education sector From the bottom up Shadow Libraries explores how simply students get the materials they need It maps the ubiquitous practice of photocopying and what are in many cases the more marginal ones of buying books visiting libraries and downloading from unauthorized sources It looks at the informal networks that emerge in many contexts to share materials from face to face student networks to Facebook groups and at the processes that lead to the consolidation of some of those efforts into more organized archives that circulate offline and sometimes online the shadow libraries of the title If Alexandra Elbakyan's Sci Hub is the largest of these efforts to date the more characteristic part of her story is the prologue the personal struggle to participate in global scientific and educational communities and the recourse to a wide array of ad hoc strategies and networks when formal authorized means are lacking If Elbakyan's story has struck a chord it is in part because it brings this contradiction in the academic project into sharp relief universalist in principle and unequal in practice Shadow Libraries is a study of that tension in the digital era Contributors Balzs Bod Laura Czerniewicz Mirosław Filiciak Mariana Fossatti Jorge Gernetto Eve Gray Evelin Heidel Joe Karaganis Lawrence Liang Pedro Mizukami Jhessica Reia Alek Tarkowski Philosophies of Multiculturalism Luis

Cordeiro-Rodrigues,Marko Simendic,2016-09-01 This edited collection offers a comparative approach to the topic of multiculturalism including different authors with contrasting arguments from different philosophical traditions and ideologies It puts together perspectives that have been largely neglected as valid normative ways to address the political and moral questions that arise from the coexistence of different cultures in the same geographical space The essays in this volume cover both historical perspectives taking in the work of Hobbes Tocqueville and Nietzsche among others and contemporary Eastern and Western approaches including Marxism anarchism Islam Daoism Indian and African philosophies

Culture, philosophies and reforms in public administration for the globalizing world Edwin O.C. Ijeoma,Ogochukwu I. Nzewi,2018-12-31 The aim of this scholarly collected work is to contribute to the scientific discourse on public administration in a globalised environment The book reflects on governance challenges in South Africa and in Africa with its point of departure being the master narratives the so called grand debates such as New Public Management and specifically the role of technology It also reflects on the so called middle range discourses concerning organisational level issues in government e g leadership and work procedures and explores new solutions to old governance challenges like corruption and service delivery The uniqueness of this collected work lies in its ability to reflect on existing philosophies and practices in an innovative way Through its multidisciplinary lens the book opens up a new vision for the future of public administration in the South African context and on the African continent not neglecting the current local regional and global environment Until recently globalisation was considered an entrenched world order but international political events during the course of the past few years have resulted in one of the biggest challenges to its endurance in recent history This includes developments such as the successful referendum in Britain to exit the European Union highlighting the growth of a severe nationalist and protectionist agenda that may be a signal of the unravelling of the current globalism world order These developments inspire deeper interrogation of the challenges to effective public administration globally and the ripple effects in South Africa and Africa as a whole Pointedly it is evident that ensuring the voice of citizens in policy decision making remains a critical governance challenge On the policy front there are perennial challenges of land reform service delivery and poverty while on the governance front corruption has metastasised with a growing culture of impunity and lack of accountability in leadership In the midst of growing corruption and more than 20 years into democracy South Africa s income inequality remains one of the highest in the world This setting constitutes the context of the research outcome published in this scholarly work
