Pace, 2015-02-11 At a time when debate over school reform commands unprecedented attention Judith L Pace argues we must grapple with the underlying challenges of classroom teaching and at the same time strive to realize the ideals of democratic education Building on three qualitative studies in grades four through twelve The Charged Classroom examines the deeply embedded tensions escalating pressures and exciting possibilities of the contemporary American public school classroom Through detailed descriptions and analyses of social studies and English language arts classrooms Pace disentangles how teachers and students navigate three charged arenas academic expectations discussion of provocative topics and curricular demands In each domain democratic learning opportunities such as promotion of positive student identity dialogue across differences and exploration of conflict are both opened up and closed down A passionate and persuasive call for education reform the book offers crucial insights about the realities of teaching and key recommendations for advancing democratic education in a multicultural society Teaching the Content Areas to English Language Learners in Secondary Schools Luciana C. de Oliveira, Kathryn M. Obenchain, Rachael H. Kenney, Alandeom W. Oliveira, 2019-01-17 This practitioner based book provides different approaches for reaching an increasing population in today s schools English language learners ELLs The recent development and adoption of the Common Core State Standards for English Language Arts and Literacy in History Social Studies Science and Technical Subjects CCSS ELA Literacy the Common Core State Standards for Mathematics the C3 Framework and the Next Generation Science Standards NGSS highlight the role that teachers have in developing discipline specific competencies This requires new and innovative approaches for teaching the content areas to all students The book begins with an introduction that contextualizes the chapters in which the editors highlight transdisciplinary theories and approaches that cut across content areas In addition the editors include a table that provides a matrix of how strategies and theories map across the chapters The four sections of the book represent the following content areas English language arts mathematics science and social studies This book offers practical guidance that is grounded in relevant theory and research and offers teachers suggestions on how to use the approaches described Multicultural Curriculum Transformation in Social Studies and Civic Education Kenneth J.

Fasching-Varner, Kerri J. Tobin, Norma A. Marrun, Iesha Jackson, Christine Clark, 2021-07-12 This book focuses on multicultural curriculum transformation in social studies and civic education subject areas. The discussion of each area outlines critical considerations for multicultural curriculum transformation for the area by grade level and then by eight organizing tools including content standards relationships with and among students and their families and evaluation of student learning and teaching effectiveness. The volume is designed to speak with PK-12 teachers as colleagues in the multicultural curriculum transformation work. Readers are exposed to things to think about but also given curricular examples to work with or from in going about the actual concrete work of curriculum change. This work supports PK-12 teachers to independently multiculturally adapt existing curriculum to create new multicultural curriculum differentiated by content areas and grade levels and by providing ample examples of what such multicultural transformed social studies and civic education curricula look like in practice.

Maths and ICT in the Primary School Richard English, 2013-05-24 By clearly outlining how ICT can enhance and improve children's learning, this book shows how to unleash the full potential of ICT within the classroom. Stimulating, useful and free of jargon, the book provides many practical examples to show teachers where, when and how ICT can be used effectively within their maths teaching. It provides advice on teaching creatively, choosing ICT resources, differentiation, assessing ICT, making the most of adult support. Rooted in the practical realities of the classroom, this book will support both trainee and qualified teachers in providing rich and creative maths experiences through the use of ICT.

Handbook of Research on Establishing Digital Competencies in the Pursuit of Online Learning Podovšovnik, Eva, De Giuseppe, Tonia, Corona, Felice, 2023-07-14 After two years of forced changes in the educational system and shifting to a new model where online learning became a reality, students and teachers gained a lot of experience and new insights into online learning. Thus, it is relevant for educators, managers of schools and developers of online applications to understand what was learned during the pandemic in order to adapt to the new situation. The Handbook of Research on Establishing Digital Competencies in the Pursuit of Online Learning considers important lessons learned about online teaching during the pandemic, the experiences of educators and the perspectives of students and teachers. The book also assists educators in designing their learning process for it to be more student and teacher oriented. Covering key topics such as technology, digital skills and distance learning, this reference work is ideal for industry professionals, administrators, policymakers, principals, researchers, academicians, scholars, instructors and students.
