Rwanda

Rwanda is a country in Central Africa with a population of 10 million people. Historical records began with a Tutsi king who took power in 1860. During this time, the Tutsi were the aristocracy and the Hutu were their servants. After World War I, the League of Nations (an early version of the United Nations) gave Belgium power to administer Rwanda.

The Belgians used the already existing Tutsi and Hutu differences and made these differences part of their colonial system. The Hutus were used as forced labor for the colonial administration, and the Tutsis supervised them. In 1933, Rwandans were given an ethnic identity card showing if they were Hutu or Tutsi. At that time, 85% were Hutu and 15% were Tutsi. This ID card and Belgium's policy of favoring the Tutsis over the Hutus prepared Rwanda for future violence.

In 1959, three years before independence from Belgium in 1962, the Hutus overthrew the ruling Tutsi king. Over the next several years, thousands of Tutsis were killed. About 150,000 went into exile in neighboring countries. The children of these Tutsi exiles later formed a rebel group, the Rwandan Patriotic Front (RPF), and began a civil war in 1990. This war, along with political and economic problems, made ethnic tensions worse and led to the April 1994 genocide shown in the film Hotel Rwanda.

The Film

Hotel Rwanda is based on real characters and events that happened in Rwanda in 1994. It focuses on the efforts of Paul Rusesabagina, a hotel manager, to hide hundreds of Tutsi refugees and from the Interahamwe militia.

Career Construction Theory and Life Writing Hywel Dix, 2021-05-13 This volume applies the insight and methods of career construction theory to explore how autobiographical writing is used in different professional careers from fiction and journalism to education and medicine It draws attention to the fact that a career is a particular kind of artefact with distinctive properties and features that can be analysed and compared and puts forward a new theory of the relationship between narrative methodology and the vocation of writing Career construction theory emerged in the late twentieth century when changes to the patterns of our working lives caused large numbers of people to seek new forms of vocational guidance to navigate those changes It employs a narrative paradigm in which periods of uncertainty are treated as experiences akin to writer's block experiences which can be overcome first by imagining new character arcs then by narrating them and finally by performing them By encouraging clients to see their careers as stories of which they are both the metaphorical authors and the main protagonists career construction counsellors enable them to envisage the next chapter in those stories But despite the authorial metaphor career construction theory has not been widely applied to analysis of professional careers in writing The chapters in this volume remedy that gap and in various ways apply the insights of career construction theory to analyse the relationship between writing and professional life in diverse careers where writing is used The chapters in this book were originally published in the journal Life Writing Teaching for Peace and Social Justice in Myanmar Mary Shepard Wong, 2022-06-02 Bringing together scholars and educators based in Myanmar the USA the UK Denmark and Thailand this book presents new perspectives and research on the struggle for social justice and peace in Myanmar at this critical juncture It shows how actors from diverse backgrounds and regions of Myanmar are drawing from their identities evoking their agency and using critical pedagogy to advance social justice and peace The chapters provide the compelling life stories of the authors specific examples of what they are doing and insights of how their work might be applied to other contexts The topics discussed include addressing structural violence peace curriculum development identity based conflict teaching the history of the country promoting inclusion civic education critical pedagogy teacher agency and agendas of research funding for peacebuilding The foreword and afterword written by well known scholars of Myanmar address the relevance and importance of the book vis a vis the current social and political crisis following the February 2021 military coup Living into Hope Rev.
