Literary Theory For Beginners Mary Klages, 2017-05-15 Have you heard the terms structuralism and deconstruction and postmodernism but aren t really sure what they mean Have you taken a whole course on literary criticism but are still feeling lost Here s the book you need to sort it all out and enjoy doing so In Literary Theory For Beginners Mary Klages takes you into her classroom cuts through the jargon and explains the ABCs and the DEFs as well in terms you can get your head around Her breadth of knowledge her unique skills as a teacher and the delightful illustrations of Frank Reynoso help us understand why literature matters how it affects us and how it reflects history culture and diversity Here are ways of thinking about literature not just reading it methods of study and frameworks of interpretation from classical humanism all the way up to psychoanalysis gender and queer theory race postcolonialism and yes postmodernism With wit and wisdom Klages takes on the two most frequently asked questions about literature and makes it all fun What does the work MEAN What is the deeper hidden or symbolic meaning Did the author intend all these meanings Are any and all meanings present in the text Are all meanings equally valid What does the work DO Why is literature important What effect does it have on the reader How can literature be a force for social change So sit back relax and take it all in

Rehabilitating Literary Theory Khaled Besbes, 2011 The present work seeks to bring literary theory in line with the most recent practical turn the humanities are witnessing When simplified succinctly presented and skillfully used in multi coded interpretation within a semiocritical framework literary theories become practical exercises in criticism not only facilitating the interpretation of literature but also making it more enjoyable and more rewarding This book is different from its counterparts in the sense that it includes an exceptionally expanded model of the practice of literary theories and replaces long and theoretical discussions with brief synopses of the examined theories It relies on less overused texts for illustration as it compiles and organizes the terms and phrases that are often used by the proponents of the discussed theories The most influential literary theories that have so far been developed in academia are included the New Criticism reader response criticism structuralism deconstruction feminism Marxism psychoanalytic criticism linguistic criticism cultural materialism new historicism postcolonialism and semiotics

Through eliminating the excesses made in the name of theory this book will restore the faith of students teachers and practitioners in the useful and enduring nature of literary theory for the analysis and appreciation of literature The Perceptive Process: a Introductory Guide to Literary Criticism , Key Terms in Literary Theory Mary Klages,2012-03-29

Rereading the "Shepherd Discourse" Karoline M. Lewis,2008 The history of scholarship narrates a complicated past for the interpretation of the Shepherd Discourse in the Fourth Gospel Both the internal and contextual integrity of John 9 39 10 21 have been compromised by a misapplied analogy dividing the passage into a parable and explanation structure and by reading models that favor historical approaches As a result the images and figures encountered in the discourse have not been allowed their full imaginative impact and the tendency is to look outside the Gospel for their referents and explanations The meaning of the Shepherd Discourse lies not in its relation to the rest of the Fourth Gospel but to that which is imported into the narrative Moreover its function as the discourse to chapter 9 and in the whole of the Gospel is overlooked Lewis employs the strategy of rereading borrowed from literary theory to address the internal integrity of the discourse and the relationship of the discourse to the rest of the narrative The literary phenomenon of rereading highlights the interconnectedness of the whole of the discourse and allows all of the imagery to be assessed at a figurative level Rereading also foregrounds the function of John 9 39 10 21 as the discourse to the healing of the blind man in chapter nine and calls attention to the importance of the Shepherd Discourse for the interpretation of the Fourth Gospel especially the often ignored image of Jesus as the door This book suggests that rereading is necessitated by the Gospel itself as a fundamental feature of its unique theological expression

Literature and Politics Yoseph Yapi Taum,2022-01-03 In the discourse of Indonesian literature history the relationship between literature and politics is pressing issue a situation that cannot be easily to overcome A long time ago during the Dutch colonial government there was a rule that literature should not discuss ideology religion and politics This colonial policy lasts and never changes even though Indonesia was already get its independence Thats why Indonesian literary society and writers have a strong believe that literature must not be involved in politics and it must not have any moral and political goals Literature cannot be related to real life directly because literature is only a fictional work The historical aspects outside literature are considered as a background or a foreground that cannot destroy the authentic characteristics of the literary works as imaginary fictional works Literary works tend to be only considered as entertainment tools that narrate an alternative world which is totally different from the world where we are living This book will be the first in discussing the relationship between literature and politics Students and experts of various sciences who would like to understand the episteme of the New Order can get benefits from this book This book gives us a reflection that the development is for human beings not the human beings are for the development The humanistic development dimension must be a must Literary works still exist continuously to guard the Indonesians struggles in defending their human dignity

Literature Against Fundamentalism Tabish Khair, 2024-06-24 Acclaimed novelist and academic Tabish Khair argues that literature as a distinct mode of thinking can counteract fundamentalism Literature is a mode of thinking stories being one of the oldest thinking devices known to humankind The ways in which literature enables us to think are distinctive and necessary because of the relationships between its material language and its subject matter reality Although present in oral literature these relationships are exposed in their full complexity with the rise of literature as a distinct form of writing Literature Against Fundamentalism argues that literature enables us to engage with reality in language and language in reality where both are mutually constitutive constantly changing and partly elusive Tabish Khair defines this mode of engagement as essentially an agnostic one resistant to simple dogma Hence literature can provide an antidote to fundamentalism Khair argues that reading literature as literature and not just as material for aesthetic sociological political and other theoretical discourses is essential for humanity In the process he offers a radical re definition of literature an illuminating engagement with religion and fundamentalism a revaluation of the relationship between the sciences and humanities and finally a call to literature as in a call to arms
