Monetary and Capital Markets Department, 2025-04-04 The transparency of the Central Bank of Montenegro CBCG's legal framework its mandate autonomy and decision making arrangements have all been strengthened over time but further improvements are recommended The most important room for improvement is for the CBCG's website to clearly explain that Montenegro's unilateral euroization limits the scope for an independent monetary policy and for the provision of ELA That should be aligned with an enhanced policy strategy which should explain its operational framework and toolkit helping the public understand how policies are formulated and what to expect In addition it should ensure timely publication of all its opinions on draft laws concerning the financial sector The discussion on the website of the CBCG's existing functional autonomy could stress that the CBCG can perform its mandate without prior approval needed from the Government Finally the CBCG's transparency could be enhanced by clarifying the function of the Governor's Collegium and by publishing the general act establishing the remuneration of the Governor Vice Governors and Council members on its website along with existing links to their incomes and assets which is already available in the Anti Corruption Agency website
