Understanding and Applying Assessment in Education Damian Murchan, Gerry Shiel, 2024-04-09 All teachers are responsible for assessing the children they teach and the outcomes of any assessment are important for individual learners schools and wider education systems Designed as a pragmatic guide for new teachers and those training to teach this book is your one stop shop for understanding assessment in schools It covers formative and summative approaches used across primary and secondary education supporting a balanced overview with policy examples drawn from the UK Ireland and wider international contexts This updated second edition reflects recent trends in assessment and includes more balanced coverage across primary and secondary age phases with a broader range of examples across curriculum subject areas a new chapter on the potential of digital assessment for both formative and summative purposes the impact of the COVID 19 pandemic on assessment in general and examinations in particular Damian Murchan is Associate Professor in the School of Education at Trinity College Dublin Gerry Shiel is a Research Fellow at the Educational Research Centre Dublin Ireland

The Truth About Our Schools Melissa Benn, Janet Downs, 2015-11-06 A superb crucial blistering expose of all the myths about our education system that are all too often used to attack it Melissa Benn again proves why she is one of country s most formidable education campaigners and why the powerful should fear her Owen Jones Guardian columnist and best selling author Never has it been more urgent to publicise the truth about what works and doesn t work in our education system Debunking the ideology of marketisation and exposing the half truths that pass for objective reporting Benn and Downs meticulously lay out the evidence that a national system of comprehensive schools delivers the best outcomes This hugely important book should be required reading for each new Education Secretary Caroline Lucas MP

Opinions about comprehensive education are often made into easy to swallow sound bites by media and politicians alike and whilst the benefits of a genuinely comprehensive education for all pupils are obvious untruths have unwittingly evolved into hard facts Based on Melissa Benn and Janet Downs work as part of the pioneering Local Schools Network The Truth About Our Schools calls for us to urgently and articulately challenge unquestioned myths about state education Benn and Downs have meticulously built an argument for its still enormously vital role and rigorously challenge assumptions that Comprehensive education has failed Local authorities control and hold back schools Choice competition and markets are the route to educational success Choice will improve education in England the free school model Academies raise standards Teachers don t need qualifications Private schools have the magic DNA Progressive education lowers standards Anyone who thinks that comprehensive education cannot deliver that local authorities are the chief block to improving our school system that competition and markets are the route to educational success and that private schools hold the magic DNA that can simply be transferred to other state schools will have their beliefs shaken by this blisteringly incisive book
