After several of the participants received all 10 questions, there was time for a discussion about the questions. Then, the facilitator read each participant's final 10 questions and asked them to read them aloud. It was not unusual for participants to have several questions that they had not asked. The facilitator then grouped the questions by topic and asked the participants to discuss them. The facilitator then asked the participants to write down the questions they had asked and the questions they had not asked. The facilitator then asked the participants to write down the questions they had asked and the questions they had not asked. The facilitator then asked the participants to write down the questions they had asked and the questions they had not asked.
