Honouring a Nation Karen Fox, 2022-01-20 The first detailed history of imperial and national honours in Australia Honouring a Nation tells the story of the honours system s transformation from instrument of imperial unity to national institution From the extension of British honours to colonial Australasia in the nineteenth century through to Tony Abbott s revival of knighthoods in the twenty first this book explains how the system has worked traces the arguments of its supporters and critics and looks both at those who received awards and those who declined them Honouring a Nation brings to life a long history of debate over honours including wrangles over State rights gender imbalances in honours lists and the emergence and hardening of the Labor Liberal divide over British awards illuminating issues that are still part of Australian life and of the honours system today The history of the honours system is equally the history of the nation revealing who Australians were what they have become what they value and the things that have unified and divided them National honours are a fraught recognition of merit They beg many questions who decides why some people are recognised and others ignored Honours provide a window to the soul of the nation and invite us to consider who we really are and what we value These are big issues to ponder Karen Fox provides many of the answers in this timely lively and important book

Julianne Schultz AM FAHA Emeritus Professor Media and Culture Griffith University Give Karen Fox a gong for distinguished service to Australian culture in recognition of her authoritative yet entertaining account of how a supposedly egalitarian country embraced knighthoods OAs and other baubles Richard White Associate Professor at the University of Sydney and author of Inventing Australia Karen Fox has written an intelligent incisive and intriguing account of how Australians have acknowledged and elevated their fellow citizens from the founding of the first colony to the present day a work packed with insights about the ever shifting determinants of social hierarchy individual merit and public esteem a thoroughly stimulating read Stuart Ward Head of the Saxo Institute University of Copenhagen At last a definitive account of the Australian honours system from the First Fleet to 2021 Honours serve as a prism through which to view imperial strategies federal rivalries and partisan class based and gender politics with many scandals and controversies along the way Karen Fox has given us a book that is both topical and compelling on evolving national identity and honours as a symbol of exclusion or inclusion Marian

Sawer AO Emeritus Professor The Australian National University Federal Register ,2013-12 United States of America Congressional Record, Proceedings and Debates of the 113th Congress Second Session Volume 160 - Part 5 , The Neoliberal State, Recognition and Indigenous Rights Deirdre Howard-Wagner, Maria Bargh, Isabel

Altamirano-Jiménez, 2018-07-25 The impact of neoliberal governance on indigenous peoples in liberal settler states may be both enabling and constraining This book is distinctive in drawing comparisons between three such states Australia Canada and New Zealand In a series of empirically grounded interpretive micro studies it draws out a shared policy coherence but also exposes idiosyncrasies in the operational dynamics of neoliberal governance both within each state and between them Read together as a collection these studies broaden the debate about and the analysis of contemporary government policy The individual studies reveal the forms of actually existing neoliberalism that are variegated by historical geographical and legal contexts and complex state arrangements At the same time they present examples of a more nuanced agential bottom up indigenous governmentality Focusing on intense and complex matters of social policy rather than on resource development and land rights they demonstrate how indigenous actors engage in trying to govern various fields of activity by acting on the conduct and contexts of everyday neoliberal life and also on the conduct of state and corporate actors

United States of America Congressional Record, Proceedings and Debates of the 113th Congress Second Session Volume 160 - Part 3 , Mutual Recognition of Judicial Decisions in European Criminal Law Libor Klimek, 2016-12-09 This book examines the mutual recognition of judicial decisions in European criminal law as a cornerstone of judicial co operation in criminal matters in the European Union Providing comprehensive content and combining theoretical and practical aspects it covers all of the major issues surrounding mutual recognition The book analyses its definition genesis principles case law implementation and evaluation Special attention is given to mutual recognition measures namely European arrest warrant i e surrender procedure mutual recognition of custodial sentences and measures involving deprivation of liberty mutual recognition of probation measures and alternative sanctions mutual recognition of financial penalties mutual recognition of confiscation orders the European supervision order in pre trial procedures i e mutual recognition of supervision measures as an alternative to provisional detention the European investigation order i e free movement of evidence and the European protection order i e mutual recognition of protection orders Instead of focusing solely on a criminal law approach the book also considers the subject from the perspectives of European Union law and International criminal law International Conference on Economics and Management Engineering (ICEME2014) , 2014-10-22 The 2014 International Conference on Economics and Management Engineering ICEME2014 is held in Hangzhou China from October 18 19 2014 The conference aims to provide an excellent international academic forum for all the researchers practitioner students and teachers in related fields to share their knowledge and results in theory methodology and application on economics management science and management engineering ICEME2014 features unique mixed topics of Economics Management Science Management

Engineering and other related ones ICEME2014 proceeding tends to collect the most up to date comprehensive and worldwide state of art knowledge on economics management science and management engineering All the accepted papers have been submitted to strict peer review by 24 expert referees and selected based on originality significance and clarity for the purpose of the conference The conference program is extremely rich profound and featuring high impact presentations of selected papers and additional late breaking contributions We sincerely hope that the conference would not only show the participants a broad overview of the latest research results on related fields but also provide them with a significant platform for academic connection and exchange

Finance Fictions Rebecca A. Adelman, 2018-11-20 In the United States the early years of the war on terror were marked by the primacy of affects like fear and insecurity These aligned neatly with the state's drive toward intensive securitization and an aggressive foreign policy But for the broader citizenry such affects were tolerable at best and unbearable at worst they were not sustainable Figuring Violence catalogs the affects that define the latter stages of this war and the imaginative work that underpins them These affects apprehension affection admiration gratitude pity and righteous anger are far more subtle and durable than their predecessors rendering them deeply compatible with the ambitions of a state embroiling itself in a perpetual and unwinnable war Surveying the cultural landscape of this sprawling conflict Figuring Violence reveals the varied mechanisms by which these affects have been militarized Rebecca Adelman tracks their convergences around six types of beings civilian children military children military spouses veterans with PTSD and TBI Guantanamo detainees and military dogs All of these groups have become preferred objects of sentiment in wartime public culture but they also have in common their status as political subjects who are partially or fully unknowable They become visible to outsiders through a range of mediated and imaginative practices that are ostensibly motivated by concern or compassion However these practices actually function to reduce these beings to abstracted figures silencing their political subjectivities and obscuring their suffering As a result they are erased and rendered hypervisible at once Figuring Violence demonstrates that this dynamic ultimately propagates the very militarism that begets their victimization
