

DUTtalks

The DUT Public Relations Management Department cordially invites you to be part of the new discussion forum called DUTtalks.

The inaugural session entitled access to higher education: is it a right or a privilege? will be held on 14th August 2015 the programme will start from 11:00 am till 14:00 pm at Cane Growers Hall at the ML Sultan Campus.

This forum is meant to gather the DUT community together to engage and promote discussion on issues which affect the institution directly or indirectly. The PR student interns in the PR Department have identified the need for such platforms within our institution to pave the way for the society as we believe that discussing issues without prejudice or fear of reprisal assists the society to progress. The forum will consist of representatives from various aligned departments and organisations, depending on the topic selected for the session as well as members of the community where possible.

In an attempt to promote public discussion it is envisaged that these sessions be held at least once a term and will be co-ordinated by the Public Relations Management interns within the department.
