

Mother Teresa

"We shall never know all the good that a simple smile can do."

"If you judge people, you have no time to love them."

Directions: Read the passage below about Mother Teresa and then participate in a tug of war to answer the question, "Was Mother Teresa perfect?" Write your thoughts on a sticky note and place your writing on the board near the answer "Yes" or "No." Be sure to sight textual evidence to prove your point when possible. When finished, we will discuss Mother Teresa and the idea of her being perfect. Write an opinion piece to support your final answer.

When it comes to perfection, Mother Teresa has been said to be close because she had devoted her life to helping others. In 1960, she founded the Missionaries of Charity, which runs hospices and homes for people who are ill as well as feeding and educating those in need.

Mother Teresa had also traveled the world to help other people. Whether she was assisting hungry people in Ethiopia, helping radiation victims in Chernobyl, or earthquake survivors in Armenia, Mother Teresa was there. She even brokered temporary peace agreements in order to cross through war zones to rescue trapped children.

Throughout her life, she had received numerous awards, including the Nobel Peace Prize in 1979. She had been recognized for her charitable contributions multiple times in India and even has her image on a special five-rupee coin. She had also received awards from the Philippines and Australia. American universities awarded Mother Teresa with multiple honorary degrees, and she has been ranked first in Gallup polls as the most honored woman around the world. Finally, filmmakers have portrayed her in several documentaries.

Although Mother Teresa had received multiple recognitions, she had also been criticized for using her celebrity status to promote her Christian values. Critics complained that she had not used some of her charitable donations to provide proper medical care for ailing individuals. Despite her criticisms, Mother Teresa is on a path to become an official saint of the Catholic Church.
