

Senior Year

Senior year is finally here, the time is now.

Before we graduate, let's take a bow.

We've grown up so fast, let's make our final moments together last.

We've had tons of fun, now our work here is done.

We'll never forget all the friendships we've won.

We're all here, so let's give a cheer!

Our high school years have gone by fast.

Let's focus on the future, not the past.

High school's been like a flight, let's go into the light.

Freshman, sophomore, and junior year was a lot of fun.

Now that we're seniors, our work is almost done.

It's almost time to graduate, there's no time to wait.

Let's submit those college applications, before it's too late.

Whenever we leave, let's not forget.

All the memories we've shared, all the people we've met.

Student and Teacher Writing Motivational Beliefs Steve Graham, Gary A. Troia, Gustaf Bernhard Uno Skar, 2024-06-21 The study of students motivational beliefs about writing and how such beliefs influence writing has increased since the publication of John Hays 1996 model of writing This model emphasized that writers motivational beliefs influence how and what they write Likewise increased attention has been devoted in recent years to how teachers motivational beliefs about writing especially their efficacy to teach writing impact how writing is taught and how students progress as writers As a result there is a need to bring together in a Research Topic studies that examine the role and influence of writing beliefs Historically the psychological study of writing has focused on what students write or the processes they apply when writing Equally important but investigated less often are studies examining how writing is taught and how teachers efforts contribute to students writing What has been less prominent in the psychological study of writing are the underlying motivational beliefs that drive or inhibit students writing or serve as catalysts for teachers actions in the classroom when teaching writing This Research Topic will bring together studies that examine both students and teachers motivational beliefs about teaching writing This will include studies examining the operation of such beliefs how they develop cognitive and affective correlates how writing motivational beliefs can be fostered and how they are related to students writing achievement By focusing on both students and teachers beliefs the Research Topic will provide a more nuanced and broader picture of the role of motivation beliefs in writing and writing instruction This Research Topic includes papers that address students motivational beliefs about writing teachers motivational beliefs about writing or teaching writing Students motivational beliefs about writing include beliefs about the value and utility of writing writing competence attitudes toward writing goal orientation motives for writing identity epistemological underpinnings writing and attributions for success failure as examples Teacher motivational include these same judgements as well as beliefs about their preparation and their students competence and progress as writers to provide additional examples This Research Topic is interested in papers that examine how such beliefs operate develop are related to other cognitive and affective variables how they are impacted by instruction and how they are related to students writing performance Submitted studies can include original research both quantitative qualitative or mixed methods meta analysis and reviews of the literature

Reflect and Write Hank Kellner, Eliabeth Guy, 2021-09-28 Now more than ever we must take advantage of students increasing fascination with graphic images as opposed to written words Reflect and Write capitalizes on this situation by marrying dynamic images to original poems written by students at the junior and senior high school levels teachers and other writers nationwide Additionally each page contains keywords as well as popular quotations by well known authors designed to inspire critical thinking Taken together the more than 300 poems photographs and quotations will help stimulate spirited class discussion and provide prompts that will evoke meaningful writing by students Like Kellner s previous best selling book Write What You See Reflect and Write will encourage students to read relate to and respond to modern verse and inspiring photographs both verbally and in writing The book includes online access to the photographs and student pages Grades 7-12      Inspiring Literacy Sam Leaton Sebesta, Kenneth L.
