Montag controls Clarice through fear because Faber is intimidating and scary.
The megal controls Montag because it can be programmed to find anyone, and it is designed to find and kill.
Mildred controls Montag because her constant use of Beowulf's frustration their communication.
Beatty controls Montag by keeping him ignorant of the true history of Faber.

Which of these is not a valid illustration of the social and psychological effect of the Parlor Walls?
The Parlor Walls encourage violence as a way to reduce overpopulation.
People are pacified by scripted Parlor Wall interactions and are therefore less likely to question authority.
Liberating dialogue has so reduced the responsibilities of citizens that the Parlor Walls can dominate the day.
Parlor Walls have made normal human interactions very shallow and dull.
The passivity of Parlor Wall watching has drained people the self-awareness of the citizens.

Which of these features of life is most consistent of the claim that natural societal connections have been eroded?
Bulldogs by themselves is as commonplace that it is handled by apathetic technicians rather than medical professionals.
A pedestrian is greeted with suspicion and might even be questioned by the police.
Authorities' claims about a fleeing man are accepted unreservedly and without hesitation.
A teenage girl feels alienated from her community and can often be found wandering the neighborhood alone.
The fire department, the epitome of a helping profession, has become the agent of oppression.

Beatty quotes extensively from literature, and argues very coherently and logically in the context of the novel, which would best describe him? He is a
Cynic
Hypocrite
Realist
Idealist
Satirist

Which is the best description? Creating a time line map helps.
The novel is set in the future of our present, and was written in the past of our present.
The novel was written in the present day but is set in the past of our present.
The novel was written in the past of our present, and is set in the past to the date it was written.
