Les Contemplations of Victor Hugo John A. Frey, John Andrew Frey, 1988 LES CONTEMPLATIONS of Victor Hugo Suzanne Nash, 2015-03-08 Victor Hugo's work presents the reader with a paradox nowhere more apparent than in the collection of more than 150 lyric poems entitled Les Contemplations. Although he insisted upon structural unity, his complex artistic creations often seem disordered and digressive. Suzanne Nash examines this contradiction and she proposes here a new approach to Les Contemplations that reveals how it may be read as a unified allegory of Hugo's understanding of the creative process. The author's reading heightens the subtleties of individual poems by placing them within the context of the collection. She clarifies the poet's use of rhetorical devices and illuminating Les Contemplations as a metapoetic creation shows how it can serve as a guide to Hugo's other works. The first two chapters present evidence of Hugo's narrative intention, place his work within an allegorical tradition and describe the structure of the allegory. One poem, Pasteurs et troupeaux, is analyzed as a paradigm for the whole and a single theme that of L'opoldine as sacrificial muse and figure for poetic language is traced through the six books. The author demonstrates Hugo's narrative purpose in his use of rhetorical forms and examines according to predominance of themes, images and technical devices the six chapters as steps in the religious poetic allegory. Originally published in 1977, The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print-on-demand technology to again make available previously out-of-print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press. These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions. The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905. Monthly Bulletin of the New York Free Circulating Library New York Free Circulating Library, 1895 Monographies de plantes canadiennes Edouard Zotique Massicotte, 1899 Les contemplations Victor Hugo, 1889 Catálogo de la Biblioteca del Casino de Zaragoza Casino de Zaragoza. Biblioteca, 1916 Selected Poems Victor Hugo, 2013-05-13 This generous varied selection of poems by one of France's best-loved and most reviled poets is presented with facing originals, detailed notes and a lively introduction to the author's life and work. Steven Monte presents more than eighty poems in translation and in the original French taken from the earliest poetic publications of the 1820s through collections published during exile to works published in the years following Hugo's death in 1883. The introduction provides helpful background information about Hugo's life and work, the selection and what is involved in translating a poet whose effortless rhymes are central to the poetry's power. Detailed notes at the back of the volume offer information about the poems and their publishing and historical contexts. This is an ideal introduction to a poet whose work for all its renown remains for Anglophone readers undiscovered. *L'intégrale sur la force de vivre.
