Conversations with William H. Gass William H. Gass, 2003 Biography Literary Criticism Conversations with William H. Gass captures the imagination and philosophical acumen of one of America's most important aestheticians critical theorists fiction writers and essayists From his first major novel Omensetter's Luck 1966 to his numerous collections of essays and philosophical inquiries to his controversial novel The Tunnel 1995 Gass b 1924 has proved himself a meticulous craftsman Throughout these interviews he reveals an aesthetic that combines ideas from sources as disparate as Ludwig Wittgenstein Rainer Maria Rilke Gertrude Stein and Plato The interviews make clear the unity behind Gass's views is by his own design Conversations retrace his undergraduate years at Kenyon College and his subsequent philosophical investigation of metaphor at Cornell University Gass has never strayed from his belief that metaphor is central and fundamental to thought and to aesthetics In these interviews he reiterates time and again his belief that the ultimate understanding of the relationship of language to the world pivots on one's understanding of metaphor In interviews in profiles and in his own essays Gass does not hide from questions about his art and personal motivations no matter how frequently they are asked nor does he toy with his interviewers Revealing how he never shies from an intellectual joust this collection includes a rousing contentious debate with John Gardner fellow literary pundit and fiction writer The distinction of Gass's prose is matched by the clarity and brilliance of the mind behind it These talks allow an unobstructed view Anyone interested in Gass's writing will delight in hearing the brutally honest voice of the mind that produced it Theodore G. Ammon is chair of the philosophy department at Millsaps College in Jackson Miss His work has appeared in such publications as Romance Notes Arachne College Mathematics and the Journal of Aesthetic Education

Mere Reading Lee Clark Mitchell, 2017-04-20 Argues through close readings of twentieth century American novels for a return to the foundations of literary study

Brecht at Night Mati Unt, 2009 One of the most influential modernist and latterly postmodernist authors in Estonia Context

God's Hazard Nicholas Mosley, 2009 God is said to have given humans freedom Yet in the story of Genesis God is a punishing father figure Why have humans portrayed him this way Here a contemporary writer named Adam imagines God behaving as a good father should seeing it is time for his children to leave home Adam writes an account of this and the story of his own child Sophie and his relationship with her The scene moves from London to New York to Israel to Iran and Iraq And might not God as well as Adam have a wife to take up the cause if things go wrong

BOOK JACKET News from the Empire Fernando del Paso, 2009 If there was not so much fiction in News from the Empire it could be called a work of history In fact the focus of this broad work is history itself as well as the many unrecorded lives and events that history has forgotten from this strange era in Mexico s early nationhood Using Emperor Maximilian and his wife Carlota as a starting point Fernando Del Paso both considers what Mexico is and the country s place in the larger narrative of world history The book spans the palaces of Europe and the villages of Mexico yet despite its broad focus News is a book rich in characters and details a work that opens up this era of Mexican history to readers without specialized knowledge Maximilian and Carlota are the focus of the book and even if they are not explicitly on every page they are always in the background somewhere providing the humanizing contradictions that fill it Del Paso draws a complicated picture of two na ve people placed in a situation they could not manage and a country they did not understand This innocence is especially inexplicable in the case of Maximilian who as brother of Austria s Emperor Franz Josef should have known something about ruling but is completely unable to govern

Hoppla! One, Two, Three Gérard Gavarry, 2009 The tale is simple if grim a disenfranchised teenage boy from the housing projects on the outskirts of Paris rapes and murders the manager of the supermarket where his mother works But Gerard Gavarry is a writer who knows how literary inventiveness can shed new light on a serious subject and Hoppla tells its story three times in three separate sections each in a different tone or mode and with different sets of images and vocabularies The first relies on tropical images and the characters speak in a lexicon borrowed from the coconut industry as if the Parisian suburbs had been transported to an exotic shore the second is nautical in nature the third invokes the mythology of the centaur and ancient Greece butts up against modern day France Gavarry's bloody and poetic narrative takes dead aim at the social political and personal roots of violence and argues for the transformative power of fiction

Paradoxes of Peace, Or, The Presence of Infinity Nicholas Mosley, 2009 Paradoxes of Peace continues the meditation of Mosley's Time at War at the end of which he wrote that humans find themselves at home in war because they feel they know what they have to do whereas in peace they have to discover this But what should inform them custom need duty ambition desire Forces pull in different directions fidelity versus adventurousness probity versus fun During the war Mosley found himself having to combine fondness for his father Oswald Mosley with the need to speak out against his post war politics In times of peace his love for his wife and children too seemed riddled with paradoxes He sought answers in Christianity but came to see organized religion as primarily a social institution How does caring not become a trap Inish Bernard Share, 2009 The setting is a country called Inish the Irish word for island and also for tell which bears a striking resemblance to modern Eire More pertinently Inish resembles a state of mind and since the mind has a tendency to wander it's not unnatural that certain scenes take place in Australia Iceland and the desolate Arrack Mines First published in 1966 revolving musically around three separate identities and the idea of identity itself Mr Share's novel can perhaps be best described as a metaphysical farce Publisher description
