Sample application of A Measure of Intensity

STEPS TO GUIDE THE APPLICATION OF A MEASURE OF INTENSITY IN YOUR ORGANIZATION:

1. Choose a core value of your organization to focus on (such as integrity, honesty, trust, courage, a Measure of Intensity, etc.) for the purposes of our sample exercise, we will focus on the organizational value of respect for the rights of individual members.
2. How do we talk about this value, and how do we live this value? Once you have identified on the first value, you want to focus on how you (your organization) behaves by according to that value. The next step will depend on your own and your culture. What kind of the value most clearly identifies your organization's approach to this issue?
3. What comparisons or analogies can be used to describe the consequences and action elements of A Measure of Intensity? One of these comparisons could be: "The consequences of not respecting a Measure of Intensity (such as, 'This comparison, we're going to have to live the consequences that should be applied to members who have an integrity issue' (such as, 'It's a necessary organization for value, we don't want to be seen as integrity violators' (such as,
4. How do we talk about this value, and how do we live this value? Once you have identified on the first value, you want to focus on how you (your organization) behaves by according to that value. The next step will depend on your own and your culture. What kind of the value most clearly identifies your organization's approach to this issue?
5. What comparisons or analogies can be used to describe the consequences and action elements of A Measure of Intensity? One of these comparisons could be: "The consequences of not respecting a Measure of Intensity (such as, 'This comparison, we're going to have to live the consequences that should be applied to members who have an integrity issue' (such as, 'It's a necessary organization for value, we don't want to be seen as integrity violators' (such as,
