Global Urbanism Michele Lancione, Colin McFarlane, 2021-06-21 Global Urbanism is an experimental examination of how urban scholars and activists make sense of and act upon the foundational relationship between the global and the urban. What does it mean to say that we live in a global urban moment and what are its implications? Refusing all encompassing answers, the book grounds this question exploring the plurality of understandings, definitions and ways of researching global urbanism through the lenses of varied contributors from different parts of the world. The contributors explore what global urbanism means to them in their context, from the ground and the struggles upon which they are working and living. The book argues for an incremental, fragile and in the making emancipatory urban thinking. The contributions provide the resources to help make sense of what global urbanism is in its varieties, what is at stake in it, how to research it and what needs to change for more progressive urban futures. It provides a heterodox set of approaches and theorisations to probe and provoke rather than aiming to draw a line under a complex, changing and profoundly contested set of global urban processes. Global Urbanism is primarily intended for scholars and graduate students in geography, sociology, planning, anthropology and the field of urban studies for whom it will provide an invaluable and up to date guide to current thinking across the range of disciplines and practices which converge in the study of urbanism. Chapter 36 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 license available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com/books/e/9780429259593>
