Half World A Novel:

Half World Hiromi Goto, Jillian Tamaki, 2010 The human daughter of parents from the Half World a limbo between Earth and the afterlife Melanie Tamaki is forced to follow her missing mother to Half World from which neither may return alive 17 500 first printing Half World Scott O'Connor, 2015-02-24 Until 1955 CIA analyst Henry March was just another faceless company man But after his partner betrays him Henry and his family are relocated to San Francisco where he is forced to oversee a series of insidious mind control experiments Each day that Henry spends supervising the hapless men lured into his facility with no idea of what they are about to endure weighs on him until his identity frays There comes a point when he can no longer separate himself as the company man from the family man thus he makes a decision to vanish into the night abandoning his family forever Two decades later Dickie Ashby a young CIA investigator is sent to Los Angeles to infiltrate a group of bank robbing radicals claiming to have been abused by a government brainwashing operation which sounds a lot like Henry's project While the members of the group cannot trust their memories they know that they need to find Henry March and the only bridge to Henry is Hannah Henry's once precocious sensitive daughter who now owns a photography gallery in the city Dickie finds himself dragged into the stunning legacy of the experiments torn between doing his job helping these people he is tempted to believe and protecting Hannah from all of them including himself Halfworld (EN premier) [x-Edition] Eftos, 2015-03-16 Kingdom of a thousandTM invention of sci fi It remains a mystery why the kingdom of a thousand is here If Eftos would be before it all the first page would remain empty Where are the neighbours There will never be a single letter more Eftos owns the kingdom of a thousand Kingdom of a thousand characters names places technologies indicia are absolute TM Eftos Ent All rights reserved The Bookman ,1913 The World Book ,1920 The Holocaust Novel Efraim Sicher, 2013-10-31 The first comprehensive study of Holocaust literature as a major postwar literary genre The Holocaust Novel provides an ideal student guide to the powerful and moving works written in response to this historical tragedy This student friendly volume answers a dire need for readers to understand a genre in which boundaries and often blurred between history fiction autobiography and memoir Other essential features for students here include an annotated bibliography chronology and further reading list Major texts discussed include such widely taught works as Night Maus The Shawl Schindler's List Sophie's Choice White Noise and Time's Arrow Twentieth Century Fiction George Woodcock, 1983-04-01 Handbook of the American Novel of the Nineteenth Century Christine Gerhardt, 2018-06-11 This handbook offers students and researchers a compact introduction to the nineteenth century American novel in the light of current debates theoretical concepts and critical methodologies The volume turns to the nineteenth century as a formative era in American literary history a time that saw both the rise of the novel as a genre and the emergence of an independent confident American culture A broad range of concise essays by European and American scholars demonstrates how some of America's most well known and influential novels responded to and participated in the radical transformations that characterized American culture between the early republic and the age of imperial expansion Part I consists of 7 systematic essays on key historical and critical frameworks including debates about race and citizenship transnationalism environmentalism and print culture as well as sentimentalism romance and the gothic realism and naturalism Part II provides 22 essays on individual novels each combining an introduction to relevant cultural contexts with a fresh close reading and the discussion of critical perspectives shaped by literary and cultural theory

An Illustrated and Popular Story of the World's First Parliament of Religions ..., 1893 Narrating Nonhuman Spaces Marco Caracciolo, Marlene Karlsson Marcussen, David Rodriguez, 2021-08-18 Recent debates about the Anthropocene have prompted a re negotiation of the relationship between human subjectivity and nonhuman matter within a wide range of disciplines This collection builds on the assumption that our understanding of the nonhuman world is bound up with the experience of space thinking about and with nonhuman spaces destabilizes human scale assumptions Literary form affords this kind of nonanthropocentric experience one role of the critic in the Anthropocene is to foreground the function of space and description in challenging the conventional link between narrative and human intersubjectivity Bringing together New Formalism ecocriticism and narrative theory the included essays demonstrate that literature can transgress the strong and long established boundary of the human frame that literary and narrative scholarship clings to The focus is firmly on the contemporary but with strategic samplings in earlier cultural texts the American transcendentalists modernist fiction that anticipate present day anxieties about the nonhuman while at the same time offering important conceptual tools for working through them

American Bookseller's Complete Reference Trade List, and Alphabetical Catalogue of Books in this Country Alexander Vietts Blake,1847 RICHARD HANNAY Complete Collection - 7 Mystery & Espionage Books in One Volume (Unabridged) John Buchan,2024-01-11 In the RICHARD HANNAY Complete Collection John Buchan presents an enthralling series of seven interwoven mystery and espionage narratives that redefine early 20th century adventure literature The collection features the iconic character Richard Hannay a blend of the everyman and the heroic whose exploits plunge readers into a world where danger and intrigue abound Buchan s prose combines meticulous detail with a brisk narrative style reflecting the era s technological advancements and geopolitical tensions often drawing from personal experiences in the military and his tenure as a government official This volume stands as a landmark in the adventure genre characterized by its tight plotting and suspenseful cliffhangers that echo the literary sensibilities of contemporaries like Arthur Conan Doyle and Rudyard Kipling John Buchan born in 1875 was a Scottish author historian and politician whose wide ranging interests and experiences informed his groundbreaking works His background as an intelligence officer during World War I and his deep understanding of the British Empire s complexities inspired him to create narratives that explore themes of duty valor and the shadowy underbelly of international relations Buchan s rich tapestry of characters particularly Hannay reflects the archetypal hero navigating moral ambiguity against the backdrop of a rapidly changing world For readers who appreciate compelling storytelling laden with historical nuance the RICHARD HANNAY Complete Collection is an essential addition to any literary library This volume encapsulates adventure and espionage inviting you to experience the tensions of an era marked by uncertainty and valor Dive into Buchan s world where every page crackles with suspense and intrigue and discover the artistry that has captivated readers for generations The Golden Book Magazine ,1929 Muse in the Machine Mark Conroy,2004 A writer who simply panders to the public is seldom taken for an artist An artist who cannot publish is seldom granted a career This dilemma the subject of Muse in the Machine has been home to many authors of serious fiction since the eighteenth century But it is especially pointed for American writers since the United States never fostered a sustainable elite culture readership Its writers have always been reliant on mass publicity s machinery to survive and when they depict that machinery they also depict that reliance and the desire to transcend its banal formulas This book looks at artist tales from Henry James to don DeLillo s Mao II but also engages more indirect expressions of this tension between Romantic individualism and commercial requirements in Nathanael West Vladimir Nabokov and Thomas Pynchon It covers the twentieth century but its focus is not another rehearsal of media theory or word versus image Rather it aims to show how various novels about publicity culture also enact their authors own dramas how they both need and try to critique the machine In subject as well as approach this study questions the current impasse between those who say that the aesthetic aspires to its own pure realm and those who insist that it partakes of everyday practicality Both sides are right this book examines the consequences of that reality BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Library of the World's Best Literature, Ancient and Modern Charles Dudley Warner,Hamilton Wright Mabie,Mrs. Lucia Isabella (Gilbert) Runkle,George Henry Warner,1902
