Major Pounding The Major Hopkins Series English Edition:

The Great War and the Language of Modernism Vincent B. Sherry, 2003 Vincent Sherry reopens long unanswered questions regarding the influence of the 1914 war on the verbal experiments of modernist poetry and fiction He recovers the political discourses of the British campaign offering new readings of Woolf Eliot and Pound F.R. Leavis Michael Bell, 2016-04-29 First published in 1988 Leavis's examples and preoccupations still largely underlie the teaching of English literature in the universities and he remains the most substantial embodiment of the liberal humanist conception of criticism with its insistence on a canon of on personal judgement within a literary tradition Hence while recent theorists have rejected his methods he remains the most potent single influence on the practical teaching of literature This book locates Leavis within the critical tradition suggests whence he derived his characteristic commitments and rhetoric and assesses his limitations in relation to his continuing value A Companion to Medieval Poetry Corinne Saunders, 2010-04-12 MEDIEVAL POETRY In a series of original essays from leading literary scholars this Companion offers a chronological sweep of medieval poetry from Old English to the great genres of romance narrative and alliterative poetry of the 15th century Beginning in the Anglo Saxon period the volume explores the Old English language and its alliterative tradition before moving on to examine the genres of heroic devotional wisdom and epic poetry culminating in a discussion of arguably the founding text of the English literary canon the great epic Beowulf In part two the Companion moves on to discuss the linguistic and social changes brought about as a result of the Norman Conquest exploring how this influenced the development of literary genres Essays probe the shifts and continuities in genres such as lyric chronicle and dream vision and the emergence of new genres such as popular and courtly romance and drama A particular focus is the continuation of the alliterative tradition from the Anglo Saxon period to the fifteenth century A series of chapters on major authors including Chaucer Gower and Langland provide fresh approaches to reading and studying key texts such as The Canterbury Tales Piers Plowman and Sir Gawain and the Green Knight Finally the collection examines cultural change at the close of the medieval period and the variety of literature produced in the long fifteenth century including writing by and for women Scots poetry clerical and courtly works and secular and sacred drama Historical Studies of Writing Program Administration Barbara L'Eplattenier, Lisa Mastrangelo, 2004-03-14 Historical Studies of Writing Program Administration Individuals Communities and the Formation of a Discipline collects essays that shine new light on the early history of writing program administration Broad in scope the book illuminates the development of the profession in the narratives of the individuals who helped form the discipline prior to the emergence of the Council of Writing Program Administrators in 1976 including those narratives of Gertrude Buck and Laura J Wylie Edwin Hopkins Regina Crandall Rose Colby George Jardine Clara Stevens Stith Thompson and George Wykoff Drawing from deep archival work these narratives offer rare glimpses into writing program administration and the development of composition as a college requirement Post-Petrarchism Roland Greene, 2014-07-14 Post Petrarchism offers a theoretical study of lyric poetry through one of its most long lived and widely practiced models the lyric sequence originated by Francis Petrarch in his Canzoniere of the late fourteenth century A framework in which poems are suspended according to some organizing or unifying principle the lyric sequence emerges from European humanist culture as a poetic discourse that represents personal experience and operates as a kind of fiction Here Roland Greene proposes that since Petrarch the lyric sequence has survived in European and American literatures from Shakespeare s Sonnets to The Waste Land to Trilce as a complex in which formal generic and cultural designs intersect and as an embodiment of lyric discourse at its most extensive inclusive and ambitious Enabled by a theoretical introduction to the genre at large the book treats the founding and elaboration of the vernacular sequence in six major texts by Petrarch Philip Sidney Edward Taylor Walt Whitman W B Yeats Pablo Neruda and Martin Adan Throughout Greene shows how Petrarchism has evolved as lyric discourse through its exposure to such events as the Reformation and Puritanism the settlement of the New World and the various modernisms of Europe and the Americas Originally published in 1991 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905
