Augustine Elementary

Introduction

Environmental science is the study of the environment.

1. Ecology - the study of the interactions between organisms and their environment.
2. Physiology - the study of the functions of the body and the organs of the body.
3. Evolution - the study of the changes in the characteristics of a population over time.
4. Genetics - the study of the inheritance of traits from parents to offspring.
5. Behavior - the study of the actions of organisms in response to their environment.
6. Population - a group of individuals of the same species living in the same area.
7. Community - a group of different species living together in the same area.
8. Ecosystem - a community of organisms and their physical environment.
9. Biome - a large area of land with a specific climate and a characteristic set of organisms.
10. Biogeochemistry - the study of the interactions between the biological, geological, and chemical processes in the environment.

Critical Thinking

Environmental science is a complex field that requires critical thinking skills.

1. Analyze each of the following arguments and identify the logical fallacy or logical flaw in each argument.
 - a. Appeal to Emotion - The argument that we should protect the environment because it is beautiful.
 - b. Bandwagon - The argument that we should protect the environment because everyone else is doing it.
 - c. Appeal to Authority - The argument that we should protect the environment because the scientists say so.
2. Identify each of the following arguments as physiological, evolutionary, behavioral, genetic, or ecological.
 - a. Physiological - The argument that we should protect the environment because it is healthy.
 - b. Evolutionary - The argument that we should protect the environment because it is the only way to survive.
 - c. Behavioral - The argument that we should protect the environment because it is the only way to live.
 - d. Genetic - The argument that we should protect the environment because it is the only way to pass on our genes.
 - e. Ecological - The argument that we should protect the environment because it is the only way to maintain the balance of the ecosystem.
