was very specific about where I should be on that day Not in a million years did I think that I would be talking to people in Africa ten years later about staying sober I was just trying to stop drinking for that day in 2004 While there in Zambia I got to visit that pastor and sit across from him in his dirt floor church talking about his meeting for alcoholics I realized that God had taken me halfway around the world to encourage this one man and that was enough My purpose now is to carry this message to other people who struggle with addiction as I have struggled in the past and to let them know there is a solution and there is hope My hope is that this book encourages you and lifts you on your recovery journey Hair of the Dog to
