Timber and Wood-working Machinery, 1912 The Timber Trades Journal and Saw-mill Advertiser, 1912 The Timberman, 1909 In Praise of Kuta Hugh Mabbett, 1987 Wood, 1943 An English and Tongan Vocabulary Shirley Waldemar Baker, 1897 Travels Wi' Xavier Xavier Zabinski, 2020-05-10

Travel is a subject of universal interest. It is in the neighborhood of impossible to find anyone who doesn't want to travel and in most cases more than they have had the opportunity or more importantly the cash to do so. I too felt a constant obsession throughout a good part of my life to experience new places, new sights, new sounds, new smells, new tastes, new almost anything. I think I can say that I come by the travel bug honestly. My zodiac sign is Sagittarius and by the Chinese calendar I am a horse. Both have wanderlust bred in the bone. My first journey happened at the age of eleven when I accompanied my grandparents to England, land of their birth and my mother's too. My little tale includes more contemporary experiences living and working in Nairobi, Paris, Edinburgh, London, and China, as well as trips throughout Europe, Asia, South America, and the Middle East. My intent is to be descriptive and not confessional as I wander back through my memory. I mean to offer a fun and lighthearted recounting of events and not a baring of the soul. I hope dear Reader you find your time well spent.

A Vocabulary of the Tonga Language Stephen Rabone, 1845 The Wide World Magazine, 1911 Indonesian Manuscripts from the Islands of Java, Madura, Bali and Lombok Dick van der Meij, 2017-07-31

Indonesian Manuscripts from the Islands of Java, Madura, Bali, and Lombok discusses aspects of the long and impressive manuscript traditions of these islands which share many aspects of manuscript production. Many hitherto unaddressed features of palm leaf manuscripts are discussed here for the first time, as well as elements of poetic texts, indications of mistakes, colophons, and the calendrical information used in these manuscripts. All features discussed are explained with photographs. The introductory chapters offer insights into these traditions in a wider setting and the way researchers have studied them. This original and pioneering work also points out what topics need further exploration to understand these manuscript traditions that use a variety of materials, languages, and scripts to a wider public.

A Vocabulary of the Tonga Language S. Rabone, 1845 Paper and Timber, 1959 Bulletin of the Chemical Society of Japan Nihon Kagakkai, 1953 Little Criminals David Cohen, 2011-03-04

A unique and powerful look at a New Zealand experiment in social welfare gone wrong. From the late 1950s to the mid 1980s, when most of them were closed down, the New Zealand government maintained 26 residences for children and teenagers. Some of those children had the bad fortune to come from families with large numbers of children and who couldn't cope financially. Plucking a child out and putting him in a home to ease the burden was seen as a solution. Other children came from profoundly dysfunctional backgrounds or were profoundly dysfunctional themselves. Could putting them all together in close quarters, supervised by staff with mostly inadequate training, ever deliver a positive outcome? In this powerfully written book, David Cohen, who himself spent time at Epuni Boys' Home in the 1970s, argues not. He tracks down former residents and staff members, many of whom argue that boys home stints led boys to rather than away from lives of crime It also led some into abuse Evocatively and originally written Cohen s research takes him back to the era of moral panic about juvenile delinquency that drove the creation of the homes and traces the sea change in ideas about the care of troubled adolescents especially Maori who were hugely over represented in the muster that spelled their eventual demise Totally gripping it is a unique insider account of a failed experiment The Amorites and the Bronze Age Near East Aaron A.
