Baudrillard (RLE Social Theory) Mike Gane,2014-08-21 Baudrillard is widely recognised as a powerful new force in cultural and social criticism and is often referred to as the High Priest of Postmodernism This study presents a detached assessment of his social thought and his reputation challenging the way his work has been received in postmodernism and proposing a new reading of his contribution to social theory Using many sources currently available only in French Mike Gane provides the keys to understanding Baudrillard s project and reveals the extent and scope of Baudrillard s challenge to modern social theory and cultural criticism He looks at the sources of Baudrillard s ideas analysing how Baudrillard has turned these sources against themselves He describes Baudrillard s dramatic encounter with critical Marxist theory and psychoanalysis showing how Baudrillard s post Marxist writings define through the exploration of fatal theory a new episode in cultural history a period of cultural implosion This balanced account of Baudrillard s social theory emphasises the originality of his work and argues that his significance can only be understood by grasping the paradoxes of his project Baudrillard s work is poetic yet at the same time critical and fatal
