THINK, PAUSE, WRITE: Tone and Mood

Tone is the writer's attitude toward the writing (his characters, the situation) and the readers. A work of writing can have more than one tone. An example of tone could be both serious and humorous. Tone is set by the setting, choice of vocabulary and other details.

Mood is the general atmosphere created by the author's words. It is the feelings and emotions the reader gets from reading the story. It may stay the same or change from situation to situation.
