NOTE: The letter must include the terms of the volunteer agreement (i.e., begin date, end date (if any), time commitment, responsibilities), whom to contact with questions, the insurance paragraph and the ID paragraph. The Volunteer Fact Sheet must be a

Dear <Name>,

Thank you for your willingness to volunteer your services to UW-Madison and specifically this department. We look forward to you helping us with <specify project>.

Based on our previous discussions, your activities as a volunteer will be <briefly describe responsibilities>. You will begin <date> and continue for as long as we mutually wish to maintain the relationship. <Specific end date also possible.> You have indicated that you can spend approximately <number of hours> hours per week on these activities.

Please read carefully the attached "Volunteer Fact Sheet". Note that receipt of this letter makes you an official volunteer and that you will be covered by the State's liability protection program so long as you perform your duties within the scope of the description provided above. Since volunteers are not covered by the state's worker compensation program, however, you are encouraged to maintain your own health insurance. If you should be injured during the course of your activities and the injury results from the negligence of a University employee or agent, you would have the same legal rights to seek compensation as would any visitor to the campus.

As a retiree of the University, you are eligible for an ID card. If you don't already have one, you may want to contact the administrator of your former department.
<IF THE VOLUNTEER IS NOT RETIRED FROM THE UNIVERSITY, OMIT THIS SECTION>

If you have any questions about your volunteer service to our department, please do not hesitate to let me know. Again, thank you for your willingness to donate your time, energy and expertise. We really appreciate it!

Sincerely,

<Name>

Volunteers Welcome! Carol Smallwood, Lura Sanborn, 2016-09-02 Volunteers are crucial to the daily operation of any library Finding and retaining the right people motivating them and matching their skills with projects is challenging This collection of 30 new essays brings together the experiences of numerous individuals across the U S providing ideas projects and best practices for volunteer recruiting and management The contributors among them library board members heads of special collections directors of state library associations outreach coordinators archivists and researchers discuss a broad range of topics in five sections recruitment and retention policies and process mentoring and empowering placement programs and responsibilities and outreach Service-learning and the Liberal Arts Craig A. Rimmerman, 2009-01-01

What are the connections between service learning and a liberal arts education That is the central question of this volume and scholars from a variety of disciplines chemistry economics education philosophy political science psychology public policy religious studies and sociology answer it here The scholars collected by Craig A Rimmerman ground their essays in the positive assumption that service learning contributes significantly to students moral ethical and social development within the broader context of a liberal arts education The contributors engage in the critique of service and then respond to that critique within the context of their individual chapters Readers will have a better understanding of what does and does not work in and out of the classroom and why The practical appeal of this volume lies in the fact that other teachers and students who are interested in both developing their own service learning courses and connecting those courses to broader issues of citizenship democracy theories of justice ethics and morality can find advice and applications of successful service learning endeavors within it BOOK JACKET Moving from Ordinary to Extraordinary Sharnnia Artis Ph.D., 2010-08-02
