

9/10/13: Nothing Ever Happens on 90th Street

I think that Eva didn't realize how exciting her street was until she wrote the story. I think this because there were so many different things happening on 90th street, but she never took the time to realize it. For example, a simple event like the pizza delivery man falling down and being helped up by Alexis Leora turned into so much more. Alexis and the pizza delivery man fell in love because of this small encounter. I wonder if this will now be an "eye-opening" experience for her and she'll stop taking these everyday people and events for granted.

This reminds me of a time where I went away to college. I always thought the town that I grew up in was boring, but then when I came home for the first time, I looked around at all of the "little things." I never realized it at the time, but my town was not boring at all, it was, in fact, a very exciting and interesting place.

Recording of Transaction; Journal and Ledger - English Navneet Singh,

Recording transactions accurately is essential for maintaining financial records and ensuring compliance with accounting standards and tax regulations Here s a general process for recording transactions

Identification of Transactions Identify all financial transactions relevant to the business including sales purchases expenses revenues investments loans and any other financial activities

Documentation Obtain supporting documents for each transaction such as invoices receipts bills contracts bank statements and vouchers These documents serve as evidence of the transaction and provide details for recording it accurately

Classification Classify each transaction based on its nature such as revenue expense asset liability equity or equity distribution Proper classification ensures that transactions are recorded in the appropriate accounts in the accounting system

Recording in Journals Record each transaction in the appropriate journal or subsidiary ledger Common journals include the sales journal purchases journal cash receipts journal cash disbursements journal and general journal

Double Entry Bookkeeping Follow the double entry bookkeeping system which requires recording each transaction with at least one debit and one credit entry ensuring that the accounting equation Assets Liabilities Equity remains balanced

Posting to General Ledger Transfer the transaction data from journals to the general ledger which contains all accounts used in the accounting system Update the respective account balances based on the debits and credits recorded in the journals

Trial Balance Prepare a trial balance periodically usually monthly or quarterly to verify that the total debits equal the total credits in the general ledger The trial balance helps in identifying any errors or discrepancies in the recording process

Adjustments Make adjusting entries at the end of the accounting period to account for accruals deferrals depreciation allowances and other adjustments required for accurate financial reporting

Financial Statements Prepare financial statements including the income statement balance sheet and cash flow statement based on the adjusted trial balance These statements provide a summary of the company s financial performance and position during the period

Closing Entries Close temporary accounts such as revenue expense and dividend accounts at the end of the accounting period by transferring their balances to the retained earnings or owner s equity account

Audit and Review Conduct internal audits and reviews periodically to ensure the accuracy and reliability of financial records External audits may also be conducted by independent auditors for statutory compliance and verification

Storage and Retention Maintain proper documentation and records of all transactions in compliance with legal and regulatory requirements Store financial records securely and retain them for the specified retention periods By following these steps businesses can ensure that their financial transactions are accurately recorded providing a reliable basis for decision making financial reporting and compliance with accounting standards and regulations the company's protocols. It's important to handle such situations discreetly and professionally to ensure a thorough investigation.

Scenario Based Questions

Imagine you have just started working here and discovered the previous accountant made a mistake in the financial statements. How would you address this?

Answer: I would review the financial statements to understand the nature and extent of the mistake. After confirming the error, I would correct the financial statements and document the adjustments made. I would also notify my supervisor and provide a detailed explanation of the error and the corrective actions taken. Additionally, I would review the processes that led to the mistake to prevent it from happening again.

You need to prepare for an audit but you find that some documentation is missing. How do you proceed?

Answer: I would start by identifying which documents are missing and then try to locate them by checking with relevant departments or individuals. If the documents cannot be found, I would document the absence and communicate the issue to my supervisor. I would also work on recreating the missing documentation using available data and ensure that all other documentation is thoroughly organized and accurate for the audit.

Preparing for these questions can help you showcase your technical knowledge, problem-solving abilities, and communication skills, which are crucial for an intermediate-level accountant role.
