of tips and advice for the budding writer      Life-Writes Suzanne Ruthven,2012-05-16 The second most common question a writer is asked is where do your ideas come from The first is Do you make any money from it Experienced writers don't go looking for ideas ideas come to them An experienced writer just has the knack of spotting what makes a good story or what will make a good story once it's been given the right spin because none of us if we're honest will let reality get in the way of a saleable piece of work Editors are looking for an element of action drama or surprise even in non fiction It's what catches their attention and makes them pause to read further and the key to any editor's heart is originality Not necessarily a new departure in style or genre but a refreshing and original slant on a popular theme Life Writes helps you to find and develop ideas with editor appeal      The Country Writer's Craft Suzanne Ruthven,2013-05-31 Country Writer's Craft Writing for country regional and rural publications covers one of the widest marketplaces for writers in the English speaking world especially in the UK Australia and the USA Here we have examples of previously published materials together with writers exercises to help build up an impressive portfolio from Suzanne Ruthven who has written on country topics for over 30 years as well as being author of A Treasury of the Countryside Hearth Garden Life Writes and Signposts For Country Living
