Section A—Reading Test (Seen passage)

Read the text carefully and answer the questions 1, 2 and 3:—

Nakshi Kantha is a kind of embroidered quilt. The name was taken from the Bengali word, 'naksha' which means artistic pattern. It is a kind of traditional craft and is said to be indigenous to Bangladesh and West Bengal in India. The art has been practised in rural Bengal for centuries. The name 'Nakshi Kantha' became popular after the poet Jasimuddin's poem 'Nakshi Kanthar Math' was published in 1929.

Traditional Kanthas are made for family use. Old or new cloth and thread are used to make these quilts. Mymensingh, Jamalpur, Rajshahi, Faridpur, Bogra and Jessore are most famous for this craft. Now, it is produced commercially. You can find them in many expensive handicraft shops in cities. The quilts are now in great demand because of the colourful patterns and designs embroidered on them.

litigants before Africa's international courts this book shows that we must look beyond these criteria to fully appreciate the impact of these courts This book shows how litigants use their participation in international litigation to achieve other objectives to amplify political disputes with their governments to build their movement to educate the public about their cause and to challenge the status quo Chapters in this collection show how these courts act as coordination points for opposition political parties to name and shame dominant parties for violation of their organizational rights Others demonstrate how Africa's international courts serve as transitional justice mechanisms in which truth telling about ongoing conflict and authoritarian governance receives significant attention This attention serves as a platform to galvanize resistance against continued authoritarian rule especially from outside the conflict countries Ultimately the book shows that these courts must be judged against new and broader criteria and understood as increasingly important venues for waging political social environmental and legal struggles
