The West African Methodist Collegiate School, 1911-2021 Christopher E. S. Warburton, 2021-12-22 The West African Methodist Collegiate School 1911 2021 presents an intricate analysis of challenging missionary work in Sierra Leone and West Africa In meticulous detail the book revisits an era that spans the slave trade and the manumission of slaves and examines the ways that missionaries helped to educate former slaves and free men for a viable form of existence The checkered history of the school chronicles the adversities courage and determination of men who dared to preserve an educational institution that was designed to provide religious and secular education In more elaborate terms the book reveals how changing circumstances and conditions of the twenty first century can obscure a nineteenth century concept when socioeconomic challenges and the vicissitudes of war and epidemics become too overpowering Catalogue of the

Building the Self-Efficacy Beliefs of English Language Learners and Teachers Mark Wyatt, Farahnaz Faez, 2024-02-20 Building the Self Efficacy Beliefs of English Language Learners and Teachers explores juxtaposes and bridges two fields of research that have developed separately the self efficacy beliefs of English language learners and the self efficacy beliefs of English language teachers The aim is to expand understanding in each field and highlight how the two areas can mutually inform each other This should encourage fresh perspectives providing direction for researchers and improving learning teaching and teacher education Empirical research suggests that English language learners and teachers who believe they can fulfil a task are more likely to succeed than those who believe they cannot Based on a deep understanding of how self efficacy beliefs are formed and developed this book illustrates how such beliefs can be supported and researched amongst English language learners and teachers Bringing together the work of educators and researchers working in contexts including Algeria Bulgaria Canada China Iran Israel Japan T rkiye the UK the USA and Vietnam this volume includes meta analyses largely focusing on quantitative data and empirical studies employing qualitative approaches and mixed methods Studies included examine factors impacting the development of language teachers self efficacy beliefs and investigate domain specific dimensions of the self efficacy beliefs of English language learners and teachers This rigorous and original volume will appeal to an international readership of scholars teachers teacher educators and researchers with interests in language education teacher education TESOL linguistics and educational psychology Invisible Work Toshie

Okita,2002-03-22 There is growing recognition that context is important for bilingual language development but understanding of that context remains underdeveloped This innovative study spanning the fields of bilingualism ethnicity and family studies shows how language use in intermarried families is deeply intertwined with the experience of everyday childrearing in specific socio historical contexts This is why despite good intentions expert advice and effort bilingual child rearing often encounters difficulties Conversely drawing on in depth interviews of twenty eight Japanese mother British father families in the UK the study uses a focus on language issues to portray actual childrearing dynamics and situated ethnicity in intermarried families Presenting a vivid picture of the invisible work of mothers in these families and how they attempt to resolve conflicting pressures and demands over childrearing language and education the author shows the importance of recognition and shared responsibility This book will interest researchers practitioners and parents interested in bilingualism ethnically diverse families and multicultural education Flamingo Social Studies for Junior Secondary Schools: For JSS 2 Ahmed Ibrahim,2005* Four Decades in the Study of Nigerian Languages and Linguistics
