Whose History Counts June Bam, Lungisile Ntsebeza, Allan Zinn, 2018-11-29 Originally planned as a fact based book on the pre colonial history of the Eastern Cape in the true tradition of history this ground breaking book focuses on epistemological and foundational questions about the writing of history and whose history counts Whose History Counts challenges the very concept of pre colonial and explores methodologies on researching and writing history The reason for this dramatic change of focus is attributed in the introduction of the book to the student led rebellion that erupted following the RhodesMustFall campaign which started at the University of Cape Town on 9 March 2015 Key to the rebellion was the students opposition to what they dubbed colonial education and a clamour for among others a decolonised curriculum This book is a direct response to this clarion call Spear Paul S. Landau,2022-06-07 Spanning the years just before and just after Nelson Mandela s 1962 arrest this entirely fresh history of Umkhonto we Sizwe MK or Spear of the Nation and its revolutionary milieu brings to life the period in which Mandela and his comrades fought South Africa s apartheid regime not only with words and protests but also with bombs and fire On the Critique of Identity Ivo Ritzer,2025-01-07 With the rise of identity politics both in right wing extremism as well as in activist academia arts and feuilleton major differences between the traditional left and the right have become blurred This book addresses the ideological shifts from a vantage point of critical theory psychoanalysis as well as Marxist interventions Discussed are prevailing ideologies of identitarianism putting the latter into social and historical as well as philosophical and epistemological context The chapters offer theoretical elaborations on the myriad connections of identitarianism and counter enlightenment analyzing in particular the role of ethnocentric populism antisemitism as well as conformist and conservative rebellion Quilt Arts of South Africa Marsha MacDowell,2025-05-27 In the southernmost region of the African continent women have been piecing together materials textile construction techniques commonly used in quilting to create bed coverings throughout the history of the San and Khoi peoples From the late seventeenth century through the early nineteenth century an influx of Dutch French Indian and British military personnel traders miners and missionaries came to South Africa bringing with them their own cultural traditions including making and using quilts Today the making of quilts in South Africa is flourishing Quilt Arts of South Africa stitches together the history production and significance of quilt making from its earliest appearance in the continent s southernmost region to the twenty first century With input from curators linguists art historians activist artists and folklorists this book presents disparate yet connected inquiries into a wide ranging history of the quilt These perspectives connect a rich expressive art to place showing how the quilting traditions in South Africa together reflect a unique cultural history and natural landscape Itself pieced together from diverse voices Quilt Arts of South Africa offers glimpses into the histories and meanings of quilting in South Africa
