WORLD'S ECONOMIC AND COMMERCIAL GEOGRAPHY Dr. Haridas B. Jogdankar, The Geography of Greece Régis Darques, George Sidiropoulos, Kostas Kalabokidis, 2024-02-22 During the last few years Greece has become a subject of increasing attention worldwide Once praised for its ability to innovate and reform during the EU integration process applauded for its remarkable job in managing the 2004 Olympics the country fell into a financial crisis of unprecedented magnitude in 2008 Much has been said on this matter and amid the morass of information a staggering number of untruths have been disseminated In fact the challenges of vulnerability and the paradigms of adaptation go way beyond finance and economy in Greece Mega fires earthquakes landslides and floods migrations sociopolitical upheavals and armed conflicts generate emergency situations repeatedly Because of its bridging role between natural and social sciences geography can provide insights into the entire breadth of hazardous and chaotic events driving adaptation and change Against all these threats Greece has developed an enhanced resilience capacity The purpose of this book is to help unravel the complexities of a fascinating country beyond clichés This book is intended for students researchers scholars and engineers interested in geography land planning urban studies and environmental management The crises issue intended as a guideline allows widening the audience to include the media governmental and non governmental agencies and the public at large The Dokdo/Takeshima Dispute Paul Huth, Sunwoong Kim, Terence Roehrig, 2021-04-12 In The Dokdo Takeshima Dispute Paul Huth Sunwoong Kim and Terence Roehrig have assembled some of the top scholars from Japan South Korea and the United States to provide a fresh and comprehensive look at one of the most long running island disputes in East Asia The book examines the dispute from multiple perspectives with chapters that provide a detailed and balanced assessment addressing issues in international law history foreign policy domestic politics the media education and the impact on relations with the United States The book also provides analyses of why this dispute has persisted for decades and explores possible solutions that are relevant for other maritime disputes in the Asia Pacific International Journal of Innovation, Creativity and Change Volume 1 Issue 4, 2015-01-28 The International Journal of Innovation Creativity and Change publishes scholarly work that promotes and fosters innovation creativity and change in all fields of endeavour The focus is on papers that will be influential in their field or across fields and will significantly advance understanding in those fields All submission are blind peer reviewed Print ISSN 2201 1315 Online ISSN 2201 1323 Circulation 1800 Local Experiences of Mining in Peru Gerardo Castillo Guzmán, 2020-02-05 This book uses a multimethod approach to examine local experience of contemporary mining development in the Peruvian Andes creating an understanding of the transformations that rural societies experience in this context Mining is a major component of economic growth in many resource endowed countries whilst also causing mixed social cultural and environmental effects Most current literature on contemporary mining in Peru is largely focussed on conflict however in this text the author takes a differing approach by examining the experiences of families in the vicinity of Rio Tinto's La Granja exploration copper project Northern Peru an area with great significance due to the mining investment and development which has taken place over the past 25 years The book first provides a critical discussion about production of space theories and debates on spatial mobility highlighting their relevance to understanding large scale mining developments especially in the Peruvian Andes The following chapters analyze spatial transformations mining development has prompted focusing on four axes access to space production mobility and representations of space A comprehensive narrative is constructed drawing on diverse voices and perspectives including those of family heads and their partners local leaders company employees and social scientists The book concludes by discussing how the findings challenge some of the current accounts of the social effects of mining development on rural communities and pose significant implications for sustainable development programs and place based practices By taking an interdisciplinary approach this book will appeal to a wide audience including geographers social anthropologists and social scientists interested in the social effects of mining as well as researchers interested in current Latin American Studies and Rural Development Mental Maps Janne

Holmén, Norbert Götz, 2021-11-28 The concept of mental maps is used in several disciplines including geography psychology history linguistics economics anthropology political science and computer game design However until now there has been little communication between these disciplines and methodological schools involved in mental mapping Mental Maps Geographical and Historical Perspectives addresses this situation by bringing together scholars from some of the related fields Ute Schneider examines the development of German geographer Heinrich Schiffrer's mental maps using his books on Africa from the 1930s to the 1970s Efrat Ben Ze'ev and Chloé Yvroux investigate conceptions of Israel and Palestine particularly the West Bank held by French and Israeli students By superimposing large numbers of sketch maps Clarisse Didelon Loiseau Sophie de Ruffray and Nicolas Lambert identify soft and hard macro regions on the mental maps of geography students across the world Janne Holmén investigates whether the Baltic and the Mediterranean Seas are seen as links or divisions between the countries that line their shores according to the mental maps of high school seniors Similarly Dario Musolino maps regional preferences of Italian entrepreneurs Finally Lars Erik Edlund offers an essayistic account of mental mapping based on memories of maps in his own family This edited volume book uses printed maps survey data and hand drawn maps as sources contributing to the study of human perception of space from the perspectives of different disciplines The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Cultural Geography

The Knowledge Gap Natalie Wexler, 2019-08-06 Essential reading for teachers education administrators and policymakers alike STARRED Library Journal The untold story of the root cause of America's education crisis It was only after years within the education reform movement that Natalie Wexler stumbled across a hidden explanation for our country's frustrating lack of progress when it comes to providing every child with a quality education The problem wasn't one of the usual scapegoats lazy teachers shoddy facilities lack of accountability It was something no one was talking about the elementary school curriculum's intense focus on decontextualized reading comprehension skills at the expense of actual knowledge. In the tradition of Dale Russakoff's The Prize and Dana Goldstein's The Teacher Wars, Wexler brings together history, research, and compelling characters to pull back the curtain on this fundamental flaw in our education system, one that fellow reformers, journalists, and policymakers have long overlooked and of which the general public, including many parents, remains unaware. But The Knowledge Gap isn't just a story of what schools have gotten so wrong; it also follows innovative educators who are in the process of shedding their deeply ingrained habits and describes the rewards that have come along: students who are not only excited to learn but are also acquiring the knowledge and vocabulary that will enable them to succeed. If we truly want to fix our education system and unlock the potential of our neediest children, we have no choice but to pay attention.

Tribes and Global Jihadism Virginie Collombier, Olivier Roy, 2018-01-15 Across the Muslim world, from Iraq and Yemen to Egypt and the Sahel, new alliances have been forged between the latest wave of violent Islamist groups, including Islamic State and Boko Haram, and local tribes. But can one now speak of a direct link between tribalism and jihadism, and how analytically useful might it be? Tribes are traditionally thought to resist all encroachments upon their sovereignty, whether by the state or other local actors from below; yet by joining global organizations such as Islamic State, are they not rejecting the idea of the state from above? This triangular relationship is key to understanding instances of mass radicalization when entire communities forge alliances with jihadi groups for reasons of self-interest, self-preservation, or religious fervor. If Algeria's FIS or Turkey's AKP once represented the Islamization of nationalism, have we now entered a new era: the tribalization of globalization?

Handbook on Gender and Health Jasmine Gideon, 2016-05-27 This Handbook brings together a groundbreaking collection of chapters that uses a gender lens to explore health, health care, and health policy in both the Global South and North. Empirical evidence is drawn from a variety of different settings and points to the many ways in which the gendered dimensions of health have become reworked across the globe. This collection includes insightful contributions from 56 leading authorities from Africa, the Americas, Asia, Europe, and the Middle East, offering a wealth of knowledge, theoretical reflection, and empirical detail on the essential elements surrounding gender and health. Topics covered include theoretical approaches to understanding gender and health, migration, sexuality, ageing, masculinities, climate change, and sexual and reproductive rights. Split into four thematic sections, this book strives to develop a clear road map towards achieving gender justice in health. The Handbook on Gender and Health will be an important resource for researchers, students, and instructors of health policy and family and gender studies. Contributors include G Alvarez, Minte E.
