Ultimate Journey Steven Rosen, 2008-10-30 Like taxes, death is inevitable. Everyone experiences it sooner or later. This book offers perspectives on death and dying from all major religions, written by experts in each of those religions. Focusing on the major world traditions, it offers important information about what death and dying means to those practicing these faiths. The second part of the book adds a necessary and truly unique perspective: a personal look at how people actually die in the various world religions as told by a hospital chaplain with anecdotes and experiences that bring the death process to life so to speak. Each chapter engages the theology of each religion, giving quotes from the literature of their respective scriptural traditions to explain the process of dying, death, and the afterlife. In doing so, each author draws on the history of his respective tradition and looks at real-life figures, exemplars of the tradition, showing how practitioners view death and hope to one day engage the death process themselves.

The Harz Journey and Selected Prose Heinrich Heine, 2006-06-29 A poet whose verse inspired music by Schubert, Schumann, Mendelssohn, and Brahms, Heinrich Heine (1797-1856) was in his lifetime equally admired for his elegant prose. This collection charts the development of that prose, beginning with three meditative works from the Travel Pictures inspired by Heine's journeys as a young man to Lucca, Venice, and the Harz Mountains. Exploring the development of spirituality, the later On the History of Religion and Philosophy in Germany spans the earliest religious beliefs of the Germanic people to the philosophy of Hegel and warns with startling force of the dangers of yielding to primeval Germanic paganism. Finally, the Memoirs consider Heine's Jewish heritage and describe his early childhood. As rich in humour, satire, lyricism, and anger as his greatest poems, together the pieces offer a fascinating insight into a brilliant and prophetic mind.
