THE BLACK WATCH Men and women sworn to live and love by a code of honor. Threshold Concepts on the Edge Julie A. Timmermans, Ray Land, 2019-12-30 Since the first literature about the Threshold Concepts Framework was published in 2003 a considerable body of educational research into this topic has grown internationally across a wide range of disciplines and professional fields. Successful negotiation of a threshold concept can be seen as crossing boundaries into new conceptual space or as a portal opening up new and previously inaccessible ways of thinking about something. In this unfamiliar conceptual terrain fresh insights and perceptions come into view and access is gained to new discourses. This frequently entails encounters with troublesome knowledge knowledge which provokes a liminal phase of transition in which new understandings must be integrated and importantly prior conceptions relinquished. There is often double trouble in that letting go of a prevailing familiar view frequently involves a discomfiting change in the subjectivity of the learner. We become what we know. It is a space in which the learner might become stuck. Threshold Concepts on the Edge the fifth volume in a series on this subject discusses the new directions of this research. Its six sections address issues that arise in relation to theoretical development liminal space ontological transformations curriculum interdisciplinarity and aspects of writing across learning thresholds. It is now the start of the summer fair season but only seven of the pieces of the oppgave ring have been safely delivered to the capital. Time is running out for both those who support the Crown and those who support the former regent.
