Urban Geography in South Africa Ruth Massey,Ashley Gunter,2019-08-17 This book embraces South Africa and its place in the Global South providing a succinct theoretical and empirical analysis and discussion of urban issues in the country There have been sporadic calls from the Urban Geography community for the development of an overarching and comprehensive text that explores contemporary processes and practices taking place in urban South Africa and more widely the Global South This is an edited collection of chapters by leading urban theorists and practitioners working on various themes within urban South Africa and serves as a base for scholars and students interested in urban perspectives from countries in the Global South

Sustainable Surfing Gregory Borne,Jess Ponting,2017-03-16 Whilst being an ambiguous and contested concept sustainability has become one of the twenty first century s most pervasive ideas as humanity s increasing impact on the environment as well as increasing social and economic inequalities have local and global consequences Surfing is a globally recognised cultural phenomenon whose unique connection with nature and rapid expansion into a multibillion pound industry offers exciting synergies for exploring various dimensions of sustainability This book is the first to bring together the world s foremost experts on the themes of sustainability and surfing Drawing upon cutting edge theory and research this book offers multidisciplinary perspectives and methodological approaches on the social environmental and economic components of sustainable surfing Contributions provide unique discussions that bridge the gap between theory and practice exploring topics such as sustainable surf tourism surf econometrics surf activism surfing governance the surfing industry and technological advancements Each chapter produces in depth insights to provide foundational insights of the relationship between sustainability and surfing This book will appeal to multiple audiences in different disciplines and sectors Practitioners will benefit from the insights presented in this volume while both undergraduate and postgraduate students will find this volume an invaluable companion including those working in geography environmental studies sport sciences and leisure and tourism studies 2020 Global food policy report: Building inclusive food systems International Food Policy Research Institute (IFPRI),2020-04-06 Food systems are at a critical juncture they are evolving quickly to meet growing and changing demand but are not serving everyone s needs Building more inclusive food systems can bring a wide range of economic and development benefits to all people especially the poor and disadvantaged IFPRI s 2020 Global Food Policy Report examines the policies and investments and the growing range of tools and technologies that can promote inclusion Chapters examine the imperative of inclusion challenges faced by smallholders youth women and conflict affected people and the opportunities offered by expanding agrifood value chains and national food system transformations Critical questions addressed include How can inclusive food systems help break the intergenerational cycle of poverty and malnutrition What can be done to strengthen the midstream of food value chains to improve rural access to jobs markets and services Will Africa s food systems generate sufficient jobs for the growing youth population How can women be empowered within food system processes from household decisions to policymaking Can refugees and other conflict affected people be integrated into food systems to help them rebuild their lives How can national food system transformations contribute to greater dietary diversity food safety and food quality for all Regional sections look at how inclusion can be improved around the world in 2020 and beyond The report also presents interesting trends revealed by IFPRI s food policy indicators and datasets Deepening the EU-China Partnership Mario Telò,Ding Chun,Zhang Xiaotong,2017-11-14 The China EC EU relationship started in 1975 is a highly institutionalized multidimensional and complex but to some extent controversial international partnership It is also challenged within the current unstable world This book addresses the convergences and the differences ideational political institutional and interests related between China and the EU by a collective interaction between Chinese and European scholars Among other things the book assesses sectoral bilateral dialogue and focuses on the interplay between internal complexity and external policies discusses ideational divergences in international law and rule of law and in many relevant policy fields Furthermore it compares sustainable growth policies explores trade and investment controversies and negotiations human rights dialogue and addresses environment and climate change policies This text will be of key interest to EU studies and politics China studies and more broadly to area Asian studies and international relations global governance Routledge Handbook of Food as a Commons Jose Luis Vivero-Pol,Tomaso Ferrando,Olivier De Schutter,Ugo Mattei,2018-12-17 This Handbook provides the first comprehensive review and synthesis of knowledge and new thinking on how food and food systems can be thought interpreted and practiced around the old new paradigms of commons and commoning The overall aim is to investigate the multiple constraints that occur within and sustain the dominant food and nutrition regime and to explore how it can change when different elements of the current food systems are explored and re imagined from a commons perspective The book sparks the debate on food as a commons between and within disciplines with particular attention to spaces of resistance food sovereignty de growth open knowledge transition town occupations bottom up social innovations and organizational scales local food national policies South South collaborations international governance and multi national agreements Overall it shows the consequences of a shift to the alternative paradigm of food as a commons in terms of food the planet and living beings Chapters 1 and 24 of this book are freely available as downloadable Open Access PDFs at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Urban agriculture in the Gauteng City-Region's green infrastructure network Eliana Camargo Nino, Sam Lane, Kanako Okano, Irvanu Rahman, Bo Peng, Hannah Benn, Christina Culwick Fatti, Gillian Maree, Samkelisiwe Khanyile, Dr Carla Washbourne, 2020-07-29 The aim of this occasional paper is to gain a better understanding of urban agriculture within the green infrastructure network in the City of Johannesburg and to identify the range of ecosystem services that could be delivered when maintaining and investing in these assets The analysis in this paper adopts a multi method approach to 1 identify the interlinkages between urban agriculture and social economic and environmental systems in the City of Johannesburg 2 validate these critical interlinkages with stakeholder input and ground level experience of urban agriculture and 3 visualise these interlinkages through a spatial analysis of food gardens in the City of Johannesburg
