W. Van Bemmelen,2013-10-22 Developments in Geotectonics Volume 2 Geodynamic Models An Evaluation and a Synthesis presents the concept of sea floor spreading and the hypothesis of global plate tectonics This book provides a basic understanding of the global movements Organized into eight chapters this volume begins with an overview of the concept of global plate tectonics with its additional hypotheses of subduction zones and sea floor spreading This text then examines the concept of vertical deformations of the lithosphere and their gravitational spreading Other chapters consider the analysis of geotectonic processes that is based on some general principles of their mechanics This book discusses as well the origin of mega undations in turbulent and laminar flow systems in the lower mantle where the matter may have a Newtonian viscosity

The final chapter deals with the geodynamics of the Earth's crust as the result of the outward growth of the deep ocean floor from mid ocean ridges This book is a valuable resource for geologists geonomists and geophysicists Consolidated Translation Survey ,1969-04 German Cinema - Terror and Trauma Thomas Elsaesser,2013-10-30 In German Cinema Terror and Trauma Since 1945 Thomas Elsaesser reevaluates the meaning of the Holocaust for postwar German films and culture while offering a reconsideration of trauma theory today Elsaesser argues that Germany's attempts at mastering the past can be seen as both a failure and an achievement making it appropriate to speak of an ongoing guilt management that includes not only Germany but Europe as a whole In a series of case studies which consider the work of Konrad Wolf Alexander Kluge Rainer Werner Fassbinder Herbert Achterbusch and Harun Farocki as well as films made in the new century Elsaesser tracks the different ways the Holocaust is present in German cinema from the 1950s onwards even when it is absent or referenced in oblique and hyperbolic ways Its most emphatically absent presence might turn out to be the compulsive afterlife of the Red Army Faction whose acts of terror in the 1970s were a response to as well as a reminder of Nazism's hold on the national imaginary Since the end of the Cold War and 9/11 the terms of the debate around terror and trauma have shifted also in Germany where generational memory now distributes the roles of historical agency and accountability differently Against the background of universalized victimhood a cinema of commemoration has if anything confirmed the violence that the past continues to exert on the present in the form of missed encounters retroactive incidents unintended slippages and uncanny parallels which Elsaesser reviving the full meaning of Freud's Fehlleistung calls the parapractic performativity of cultural memory A German Women's Movement Nancy R. Reagin,2000-11-09 Nancy Reagin analyzes the rhetoric strategies and programs of more than eighty bourgeois women's associations in Hanover a large provincial capital from the Imperial period to the Nazi seizure of power She examines the social and demographic foundations of the Hanoverian women's movement interweaving local history with developments on the national level Using the German experience as a case study Reagin explores the links between political conservatism and a feminist agenda based on a belief in innate gender differences Reagin's analysis encompasses a wide variety of women's organizations feminist nationalist religious philanthropic political and professional It focuses on the ways in which bourgeois women's class background and political socialization and their support of the idea of spiritual motherhood combined within an antidemocratic climate to produce a conservative maternalist approach to women's issues and other political matters According to Reagin the fact that the women's movement evolved in this way helps to explain why so many middle class women found National Socialism appealing Male Homosexuality in West Germany Clayton J. Whisnant,2012-05-22 Whisnant argues that the period after Nazism was more important for the history of homosexuality in Germany than is generally recognized Gay scenes resurfaced a more masculine view of homosexuality also became prominent Above all a public debate about homosexuality emerged constituting a critical debate within the Sexual Revolution New Readings in

Arabic Historiography from Late Medieval Egypt and Syria Jo van Steenberghe, Maya Termonia, 2021-04-19 The present volume contributes to research on historic Arabic texts from late medieval Egypt and Syria Departing from dominant understandings of these texts through the prisms of authenticity and literarization it engages with questions of textual constructedness and authorial agency It consists of 13 contributions by a new generation of scholars in three parts Each part represents a different aspect of their new readings of particular texts Part one looks at concrete instances of textual interdependencies part two at the creativity of authorial agencies and part three at the relationship between texts and social practice New Readings thus participates in the revaluation of late medieval Arabic historiography as a critical field of inquiry Contributors Rasmus Bech Olsen Victor de Castro Leon Mohammad Gharaibeh Kenneth A Goudie Christian Mauder Evan Metzger Zacharie Mochtari de Pierrepont Clement Onimus Tarek Sabraa Iria Sant s de Arcos Gowaart Van Den Bossche Koby Yosef
