The Origin of the Red Cross Henry Dunant, 1911 Recueil Des Cours, Collected Courses 1928 Academie De Droit International De La Ha,1968-12-01 A Memory of Solferino Henri Dunant, 2013-12-14 Henri Dunant 1828 1910 was a Swiss businessman who happened to witness the horrors of the 1859 Battle of Solferino between France Sardinia and Austria Three years later he published Un Souvenir de Solferino at his own expense and presented it to leading figures in Europe The next year due to his efforts the Red Cross was founded Henry Dunant Corinne Chaponnière, 2022-01-13 Timely and significant Church Times A pioneer of humanitarianism and founder of the International Red Cross Henry Dunant was many things over his lifetime A devout Christian and social activist an ambitious but failed businessman a humanitarian genius and a bankrupt recluse In this biography Corinne Chaponni re reveals the tumultuous trajectory of Henry's life From his idyllic childhood in Geneva she follows Henry through the horrors of the Battle of Solferino his creation of the Red Cross and role in the Geneva Conventions the disgrace of his bankruptcy and his resurrection as a Nobel Peace Prize winner It shows how this champion of wounded soldiers and prisoners of war was not an unblemished picture of piety and goodness but that his empathy and good works played out in tandem with his social ambition and personal drive It shows how even the best of us fall on hard times and that the Red Cross was born out of humanitarian ideals coupled with a desire for personal success This book reveals the story of Henry Dunant blemishes and all against the backdrop of the horrors of war the weight of religion and the birth of humanitarianism in the 19th century Un souvenir de Solferino Henry Dunant, 1980 Solferino Henry Dunant, 2012 The Origin of the Red Cross: "Un souvenir de Solferino" Henry Dunant, 2020-03-16 In Un souvenir de Solferino Henry Dunant presents a poignant and detailed account of the atrocities he witnessed during the Battle of Solferino in 1859 a pivotal event in the Italian Wars of Independence Through vivid and emotive prose Dunant not only recounts the horrors of war but also highlights the pressing need for humanitarian reform and the organization of medical care for wounded soldiers. His literary style intertwines journalistic observation with a powerful call for compassion laying the groundwork for the principles of modern humanitarian action The context of the book is crucial as it emerged during a time of burgeoning national conflicts and social upheaval in Europe prompting discussions on the ethics of warfare and the protection of human dignity amidst violence Henry Dunant a Swiss businessman and social activist was deeply influenced by his experiences during the battle where he witnessed thousands of wounded soldiers abandoned and suffering His profound sensitivity towards human suffering and his belief in the need for organized humanitarian assistance led him to propose the establishment of the International Red Cross His visionary ideas not only changed the landscape of wartime medical care but also ignited a global humanitarian movement that continues to resonate today Un souvenir de Solferino is a must read for anyone interested in the foundations of humanitarian principles or the history of the Red Cross Dunant's compelling narrative serves as an urgent reminder of our shared humanity making this work essential for scholars activists and general readers alike seeking to understand the evolution of humanitarianism in the face of conflict The Development and Principles of International Humanitarian Law Wolff Heintschel von Heinegg, 2017-07-05 The essays selected for the first part of this volume offer an insight into the development as distinguished from the history of international humanitarian law The focus of the majority of the works reprinted here is on an analysis of the adequacy of the law as it stood at the time of the respective publication and in the light of existing contemporary armed conflicts and military operations. Thus the reader is afforded an in depth look at the early roots of international humanitarian law the continuing relevance of that body of law despite advances in weapons technology and the efforts to progressively develop it International humanitarian laws development cannot be considered in isolation from its principles. The essays selected for the second part of the volume deal with the two fundamental principles underlying all of international humanitarian law humanity and military necessity. The articles on the principles of humanity include reflections on the famous Martens Clause and the analyses of military necessity take no account of Kriegsraison Moreover they offer proof of the customary character of the principle of distinction in land air and Encounter with Henry Dunant Bernard Gagnebin, Marc Gazay, 1963 naval warfare Pamphlets United States Sanitary Commission, 1865 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant The Law of Non-International Armed Conflict Sandesh Sivakumaran, 2012-08-09 Non international armed conflicts now far outnumber international ones but the protection afforded by international law to combatants and civilian is not always clear This book will set out the legal rules and state practice applicable to internal armed conflicts drawing on armed conflicts from the US civil war to present day Bravery or Bravado? The Protection of News Providers in Armed Conflict Nina Burri,2015-05-12 During the last decade the image of war correspondents in the news has shifted dramatically Reports are no longer full of cheerleading stories of embedded journalists Instead stories of war reporters being attacked kidnapped or injured prevail Sadly the former heroic witnesses to war have become victims of their own story In this book Nina Burri provides the first comprehensive analysis on how international law protects professional and citizen journalists photographers cameramen and their support staff during times of war Using examples from recent armed conflicts in Iraq Libya Gaza and Syria Burri explores the means methods and risks of contemporary war coverage and examines the protection of news providers by international humanitarian law international criminal law and human rights law

Protection of Cultural Property in the Event of Armed Conflict Jiri Toman, 2017-07-12 At the request of UNESCO Jiri Toman Acting Director of the Henry Dunant Institute in Geneva has written this detailed analysis of the 1954 Hague Convention for the Protection of Cultural Property in the Event of Armed Conflict still the only universal legal instrument in this field The author has used the materials that emerged from the preparatory work for the Convention and has taken numerous examples from UNESCO's records about the application of the Convention in conflicts over the last 40 years to illustrate this article by article commentary on the Convention itself the Regulations for its Execution and its Protocol The author establishes parallels with other international legal instruments such as the 1977 Protocols Additional to the 1949 Geneva Conventions or the other UNESCO conventions relating to cultural heritage and puts forward ideas for a more general study of the protection of cultural property in the event of armed conflict and the legal and practical ways of achieving this This work should satisfy the expectations of politicians and those responsible for culture in the countries that are States Parties to the Convention now numbering more than 80 and of those that are considering becoming parties to it given the increasing calls being made for the international community to have greater powers to defend the cultural heritage from attacks to which it is too often exposed in armed conflicts today The Red Cross's Public Health Turn Romain Fathi, 2025-06-10 This book is about the Cannes Medical Conference of April 1919 and its long lasting impacts in the humanitarian space In the aftermath of the First World War as the world order was being redesigned this conference served to shift the Red Cross movement towards peacetime and public health work The book examines the origins course and consequences of the Cannes Medical Conference and its wider legacy within the Red Cross movement a legacy which is very significant yet almost completely undocumented The book demonstrates that this medical conference was a watershed moment that served to pivot the Red Cross movement across the world from war and conflict related activities to peacetime programs such as relief disease and disaster management

International Dimensions of Humanitarian Law UNESCO,2024-01-09 Commissioned by UNESCO from the Henry Dunant Institute this volume of essays lays the foundation for an international programme for the teaching of international humanitarian law within the framework of UNESCO s plan for the development of the teaching of human rights Parts I and II deal with the development of humanitarian ideas and law within different schools of thought and cultural traditions Part III with the law of armed conflict and Part IV with the application of international humanitarian law It is hoped that the publication of this volume which in its original French edition coincided with the 40th Anniversary of UNESCO and the International Year of Peace proclaimed in 1986 by the UN General Assembly will reinforce the determination of the international community to achieve the aim of the founders of UNESCO namely to construct the defences of peace in the minds of men The Laws of Armed Conflicts Dietrich Schindler, Jirí Toman, 2004-04-01 The long awaited fourth edition of this classic collection reproduces the texts of conventions draft conventions and resolutions on the law of armed conflicts which have been adopted since the codification movement started in the nineteenth century Since the previous edition appeared the number of texts has increased due to the rapid development of this branch of international law In order to give the reader access to all conventions and similar texts adopted since the nineteenth century older conventions that in the course of time were replaced by newer ones such as the Geneva Conventions adopted before 1949 have also been reproduced All texts are introduced by a short explanatory note A list of signatures ratifications and accessions as well as the texts of reservations of individual states are attached to each convention The book is fully indexed Recueil Des Cours, Collected Courses, 1953 Academie De Droit International De La Ha, 1968-12-01 The Academy is a prestigious international institution for the study and teaching of Public and Private International Law and related subjects The work of the Hague Academy receives the support and recognition of the UN Its purpose is to encourage a thorough and impartial examination of the problems arising from international relations in the field of law The courses deal with the theoretical and practical aspects of the subject including legislation and case law All courses at the Academy are in principle published in the language in which they were delivered in the Collected Courses of the Hague Academy of International Law the Destruction of Cultural Property in International Criminal Law Caroline Ehlert, 2013-10-24 In Prosecuting the Destruction of Cultural Property in International Criminal Law Caroline Ehlert offers an analysis of treaty law protecting cultural property from destruction and foremost of the relevant provisions for prosecuting the destruction of cultural property in international criminal law The wanton destruction of valuable cultural property during armed conflict as well as during peacetime is omnipresent Therefore it is of the utmost importance to provide for provisions criminalising the destruction of cultural property and offering a basis for the prosecution of possible perpetrators
