Anyone interested in aging studies or health care would find this volume useful and enlightening. Anthropology and Aging Quarterly This unique volume with its person and context centered focus is the only book to emphasize the need to incorporate social cultural and demographics into transitional care protocol for elderly patients. It encompasses the larger context of life experience in order to provide optimal pathways through transitions of care for elderly patients and has broad implications for shaping policy and future research. A consideration of contextual factors for both patients and caregivers is woven throughout the book. Chapters focus on physical and complex health problems shaping transitions of care, legal ethical and decision making issues including informed consent and end of life, the impact of the current fragmented healthcare system on transitions of care, educating the workforce in transitions of care and planning for future pathways of transition that will accommodate the rapidly growing elderly population. The volume will be of interest to researchers, practitioners, educators, policy makers, students, elderly patients and their caregivers. Key Features: Describes a person and context centered focus emphasizing social demographics and geographic location in understanding transitions of care among older adults. Based on the most current research on critical issues in transitional care for the elderly. Written by a multidisciplinary cast of highly respected authors. Includes case studies and discussion of how specific conditions affect transitions of care in different ways. Addresses the physical and emotional effects of transitions on patients and caregivers. Hispanic Physician Magazine, 1989 Corporate Compliance in Home Health Fay Adrienne Rozovsky, 1998 Litigation is rampant in the home health field and it's not just about billing and coding. It's also about other practices that could lead to compliance problems such as substandard employment practices or failing to run background checks. A lawsuit against your agency could come completely out of left field. But you can avoid getting blindsided and protect your agency. Corporate Compliance in Home Health: Establishing a Plan Managing the Risks gives home health care providers practical down to earth standards for controlling and preventing losses growing out of corporate compliance. With this new resource from Aspen get an up to date and easy to understand review of the law of corporate compliance, find out how the new OIG Office of the Inspector General of HCFA model compliance guidance for hospitals impacts home health and uncover where your agency is at risk. You'll find out what to do if and when your agency comes under investigation and get important timely federal reference material from the GAO to HHS and key parts of the Federal Sentencing Guidelines
