

Trinity Sunday Prayers of Intercession

Prayers for public worship

Reading: Romans 8: 12-17

God the Father, bless us,
God the Creator, we pray for the world,
Brought to birth by your love,
Where your children
Fight and kill,
Die of hunger and disease,
Oppress and exploit one another,
We pray for

God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit:
We ask for new life in you.

God the Son, protect us,
God the Saviour, we pray for humankind,
Whose joys and pains you came in love to share,
And who are still in need
Of repentance and forgiveness,
Of healing and comfort,
Of faith and hope.
We pray for

God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit:
We ask for new life in you.

God the Spirit, guide us,
God among us, we pray for the Church,
Created, sustained and filled with love by you,
Asking that you will give us
Vision and courage,
Unity with one another,
The strength to serve you in the world.
We pray for

God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit:
We ask for new life in you.

God the Father, bless us, God the Son, protect us,
God the Spirit, guide us, now and evermore.
Amen.

Courtney Jones, 1898 Minister's Prayer Book Mary Jane Haemig, Chris Halverson, Robb Harrell, 2020-02-04 Since it first appeared in print in 1959 John Doberstein s Minister s Prayer Book has been a devotional classic among Lutheran pastors Written by a pastor for other pastors Doberstein s work recognizes the need for the pastor to drink from a well of rich resources to sustain the spiritual vitality needed to serve faithfully in parish ministry The fact that this manual of devotion is still available more than fifty years later is a testament to the timelessness of the collection Doberstein gathered as well as to his own pastoral acumen Other than a minor revision made in 1986 by Philip Pfatteicher to update the propers there has been no attempt to bring fresh material to Doberstein s work no attempt to update it for a new generation Until now This revised edition recognizes the increasingly diverse face of clergy New resources prayers and readings written by women people of color and Christians from around the world give the collection a broader appeal The beauty of the Minister's Prayer Book is its intentional re-centering of the pastor's calling on word and sacrament on pastoral care and on being fully present and engaged in the lives of God's people

Prayer and Performance in Early Modern English Literature Joseph Sterrett, 2018-10-25 Early modern England was a nation alive with intense religious debate with often violent results Central to these debates were questions of prayer questions powerful enough to splinter the English church and to fuel a ferocious civil war This collection of thirteen newly commissioned essays traces the controversy and value given to the performance of prayer through the body the spoken word and written text as well as its representation on stage Through close readings of the works of Christopher Marlowe William Shakespeare John Donne John Milton and Henry Vaughan amongst others this book examines the performative aspects of prayer in a range of literary modes This broad range of study is expanded further with chapters focussing on the private religious diaries of men and women throughout the seventeenth century and the convergence of music and prayer in the work of William Byrd

The Lord's Prayer in the Ghanaian Context Michael Wandusim, 2021-10-25 This study explores the reception history of the Lord's Prayer in the Ghanaian context After presenting the current state of research in the Lord's Prayer from an exegetical perspective this book discusses a wide field of hermeneutical approaches such as inculturation biblical hermeneutics mother tongue biblical hermeneutics African feminist biblical hermeneutics liberation biblical hermeneutics and post colonial biblical hermeneutics Taking the discussions of these approaches together it was realised that the general hermeneutical setting in Ghana and Africa as whole is reader centred i.e. the readers play an active role in the hermeneutical process and the results of the hermeneutical process are aimed at the readers contexts and the transformation of those contexts Karl Barth on Prayer Ashley

Cocksworth, 2015-08-27 Ashley Cocksworth presents Karl Barth as a theologian who not only produces a strong and vibrant theology of prayer but also grounds theology itself in the practice of prayer Prayer and theology are revealed to be integrally related in Barth's understanding of the dogmatic task Cocksworth provides careful analysis of a range of key texts in Barth's thought in which the theme of prayer emerges with particular interest He analyzes Barth's writings on the Sabbath and uncovers an unexpected theology of contemplative prayer the doctrine of creation of the Church Dogmatics and explores its prioritization of petitionary prayer and the ethics of the doctrine of reconciliation in which a turn to invocation is charted and the final resting place of Barth's theology of prayer is found Through the theme of prayer fundamental questions are asked about the relation of human agency to divine agency as conceived by Barth and new insights are offered into his understandings of the nature and task of theology pneumatology sin baptism religion and sanctification The result is a rich engagement with Barth's theology of prayer an advancements of scholarship on Karl Barth and a constructive contribution to the theology of prayer

Practicing Prayer for the Dead James B. Gould, 2016-11-04 Throughout history Christians have prayed for the dead This book challenges Protestants who seldom pray for the dead to begin doing so and Roman Catholics and Eastern Orthodox who pray only for the Christian dead to include the unsaved as well Gould discusses the meaning of prayer for final consummation of all things growth of the blessed in heaven purification of the imperfect in purgatory and salvation of the unsaved in hell identifying the necessary conception of the afterlife required by each particular prayer He also reflects on the spiritual value of prayer for the departed how it enhances faith builds hope and sharpens discipleship and provides some sample prayers for public liturgy and private devotion In essence Practicing Prayer for the Dead offers an outline of theology from the perspective of death arguing that prayer for all the departed is one aspect of a tightly knit web of doctrines The argument while revisionary in some respects is orthodox ecumenical and integrative engaging a range of academic disciplines so as to be biblically accurate historically informed and philosophically reasoned

Prayer After Augustine Jonathan D. Teubner,2018 The influence of the theology and philosophy of Augustine of Hippo on subsequent Western thought and culture is undisputed Prayer after Augustine A Study in the Development of the Latin Tradition argues that the notion of the Augustinian tradition needs to be re thought and that already in the generation after Augustine in the West such a re thinking is already and richly manifest in more than one influential form In this work Jonathan D Teubner encourages philosophical moral and historical theologians to think about what it might mean that the Augustinian tradition formed in a distinctively Augustinian fashion and considers how this affects how they use discuss and evaluate Augustine in their work This is exemplified by Augustine s reflections on prayer and how they were taken up modified and handed on by Boethius and Benedict two critically influential figures for the development of Latin medieval philosophical and theological cultures Teubner analyses and exemplifies the particular theme of prayer and the other topics it constellates in Augustine and to show how it already forms a distinctively Augustinian concept of tradition that was to prove to have fascinatingly diverse manifestations Part I traces the development of Augustine s understanding of prayer Patience and hope as articulated in prayer sit at the centre of Augustine s understanding of Christian existence In Part II Teubner turns to suggest how this is picked up by Boethius and Benedict

Abiding in Amen Wesley W. Ellis,2025-10-14 In a world obsessed with efficiency and results where even spiritual practices are often treated as skills to be mastered Wesley Ellis invites readers into a transformative reimagining of prayer

Abiding in Amen challenges the prevailing assumption that prayer is something to be achieved offering instead a vision of prayer as a gift to be received With his characteristic warmth and pastoral insight Ellis explores the ways in which modern society has conditioned people to seek control even in their relationship with God Prayer rather than being a tool for self improvement or a task on a spiritual checklist is a space of divine grace and resonance where people are invited to relinquish control He calls for a paradigm shift from striving to abiding from anxiety to trust from results to relationship Ellis reminds readers that prayer does not begin with human effort but with God s action Through engaging storytelling theological depth and a sense of humor he encourages readers to release the pressure of performance and enter into a more liberated authentic communion with God Prayer, Middle Knowledge, and Divine-Human Interaction Kyle D. DiRoberts, 2018-07-27

Christians generally believe that in prayer they are free in their act to petition God Christians also believe that they pray to a God that is sovereign and omniscient Kyle DiRoberts maintains that explanation as to how one affirms these two truths is dependent upon one s account of divine providence which determines how motivated the person is to offer petitionary prayer in the divine human relationship The theories of providence and their understanding of petitionary prayer discussed in this book include compatibilism hard determinism open theism and middle knowledge Each of the theories of divine providence discussed in this book share a desire to construct a view concerning petitionary prayer that would propel the Christian toward God in relationship and then lead the body of Christ to pray without ceasing DiRoberts argues that middle knowledge is the preferred theory of providence as it relates to petitionary prayer because for middle knowledge God s sovereignty includes both his omniscience and libertarian human freedom Traditional Worship in Russian-speaking Churches

Leonid Mikhovich, 2025-02-28 There is an acute lack of a theology of worship in Baptist Russian speaking contexts with the ramifications of the Tsarist and later Soviet persecution limiting its development even to this day While there is now opportunity to do so developing a theology of worship in the local context is imperative Filling this gap Dr Leonid Mikhovich considers the historical religious and political contexts that have influenced Russian speaking worship Drawing examples from the Baptist movement in Belarus Dr Mikhovich analyzes its various influences and explores conflict arising between local and foreign traditions within the process of adopting some Western structures for the Eastern situation The results prompt reflection on the different expressions of worship and the underlying convictions present in respective cultural contexts while also offering counsel for dealing with tensions between liturgical practices and authoritative voices in the Baptist tradition As the first of its kind worship and church history scholars will find this comprehensive study into traditional Russian speaking worship invaluable for understanding its historical theological and cultural perspectives and essential for mapping its future Routledge International Handbook of Religion in Global Society Jayeel Cornelio, François
