Communication and Handicap E. Hjelmquist, L.-G. Nilsson, 1986-09-01 Theory and data on various aspects of cognition communication and handicap are presented here related to two sorts of psychological compensation On the one hand basic principles of cognition are employed with the purpose of helping to overcome communicative difficulties among handicapped people and on the other various sorts of technical aids used for compensatory purposes are examined Many of the papers presented here stem from a conference held in Stockholm in 1985 sponsored by the Swedish Council for the Planning and Coordination of Research as part of a large scale project on handicaps Although researchers in psychology were in the majority students of other disciplines also took part Demystifying Research George R. Taylor, Cynthia L.

Jackson, 2007-01-01 The Primer is a practical resource for education and social science beginner researchers who can be tentative about how to begin their research projects and find the detailed research books overwhelming initially Central to the Primer is a process developed by Jackson to guide beginner researchers in conceptualizing and framing a research project The process information examples and exercises were field tested with over 100 doctoral students in dissertation proposal development courses The contents have proven successful in meeting beginners initial needs Written in nontechnical language readers are guided incrementally through the complexities of focusing a research study and how to address the initial problems they can encounter when embarking on the research journey Part I provides preliminary considerations about research and being a researcher Part II describes ways of thinking about conceptualizing and framing a research study Part III contains a comparative overview of the quantitative and qualitative research approaches and highlights some of the research methods associated with each Part IV assists novice researchers in becoming familiar with data sources for research contents of a research proposal and a research report and answers procedural questions that are frequently asked Cover picture Samuel Joseph St Croix Virgin Islands Scientific Bulletin ,1983 The impact of shared leadership on group functioning and performance Stewart T.
